FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

Elizabeth City, North Carolina

November 5-9, 1947

OBJECTIVES

As we enter the final phase of The Crusade for Christ, our chief objective during the coming year shall be to reach a larger number of people for Christ and the Church through the church school.

To achieve this, your committee proposes the following major objectives for this year:

1. Full cooperation with the Conference Board of Education and the Conference Crusade Council in their plans and programs for increasing church school enrollment and attendance in every church.

2. Every church school should become an agency of evangelism with the objective of winning every church school member to an acceptance of Christ as Saviour and to membership in the church.

3. Through the church school and otherwise, we should educate our people concerning their missionary opportunity by the use of study classes, mission specials, local mission projects and missionary programs.

4. The members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service shall cooperate with the church school in winning all of the members of their families to active participation in the program of the church school.

5. One objective for this year shall be the completion of our conference goal for the College Advance Fund.

6. That our people may be better informed concerning our objectives and programs, we urge a continued increase in the number of subscribers to the North Carolina Christian Advocate and to our other church publications.

ORPHANAGE:

7. We recommend, in order to have a fixed and definite basis for calculation, the apportionment to each charge of an amount equal to 7% of the total money raised by the charge in the Conference year 1945-1946 as reported in our 1946 Journal, less the following five items:

Statistical table 2A—Amount paid on Indebtedness including Principal and interest.

Statistical table 2A—Amount Paid on Buildings and Improvements.

Statistical table 2B—Amount Paid School and Colleges

Statistical table 2B—Amount Paid on Crusade for Christ.

All special gifts for endowment purposes made either to the local church or the orphanage. All orphanage specials, except that raised by the Woman's Society of Christian Service, are to be credited on the 7% asking.

We further recommend that in order to have the apportionments uniformly calculated that the Business Manager of the Orphanage have the calculations made for each charge, inform each charge of the amount and furnish each District Superintendent with a report for his District—Further that the Business Manager be authorized to notify each charge at least one month prior to Conference of its credits and balances of apportionments for the year.

It is anticipated that exact payment of this apportionment will provide the Orphanage with $108,000.00 and that the provision made above for full payment in all charges and the normal amount of overpayment will secure the full amount requested—$114,000.00.

8. Sustentation Fund: We recommend the apportionment to each charge of the same amount as for the year 1943-44.

9. Methodist College Advance, 5% Fund: We approve the Methodist College Advance as recommended by the Board of Education in its report No. 1, and we recommend the apportionment of $18,000.00 as contained in item 3 (b) 1945 Conference report on the same basis as the Sustentation Fund, less 10% on an individual charge basis.

10. Board of Conference Claimants: We include the request of said Board per their report, for a total sum equal to 14% of the salaries of pastors and clerical assistants. We direct the Conference Treasurer to remit 1/28 portion of the proceeds to the Board of Pensions of the Methodist Church of the Missouri Corporation "for the divided annuity fund."

11. "That we approve the request of the Wesley Foundation for the privilege of soliciting the Alumni, Parents of the Methodist Students, and others who desire to make special gifts for the benefit of the student work in State supported institutions."

12. We recommend Conference approval of the request of the Board of Education for permission to raise money for the purpose of developing Camp Don-Lee in Pamlico Count.

Any funds which may be raised under this authorization are to be remitted to George R. Wallace, Treasurer, Morehead City, N. C.

13. Supplementary Budget Items.

(a) We recommend that the Treasurer be authorized to pay from funds on hand and on approved vouchers any excess in the cost of Conference entertainment above $2500.00.

(b) Also that the Treasurer be authorized to pay from funds on hand the necessary sum for printing and delivery to the local charge of a leaflet promoting World Service if one be issued.

Part V

1. Remittances to Conference Treasurer.

We recommend that all remittances to his office for causes handled by it be transmitted with the official remittance advice form provided for that purpose. Also that such remittances be made not more often than once each month and that charges of more than one church remit through one person, the pastor or some other, to avoid handling of very small amounts as far as possible.

2. We recommend the employment of A. M. Pullen & Company, C. P. A., to audit the books of our Treasurer.

3. We recommend schedule of Treasurer's bonds, North Carolina Conference as follows, and that the coverage be in the form of a position bond. The following positions to be covered for amounts stated:

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION

In this the fourth year of the Crusade for Christ the Board of Missions and Church Extension is glad to know the year of Stewardship has received large emphasis throughout the conference. Our people are coming more and more to realize the position of trust they occupy with reference to the proper Christian use of their time, influence, and money, and are responding perhaps more liberally to the great challenge of being co-laborers with Jesus Christ in building a Christian civilization throughout the world. The Methodist Church believes now more than ever the world is its parish.

Our Conference and District Missionary Secretaries have kept the cause of missions before us in our District as well as conference-wide meetings. During May five missionary institutes were held at Raleigh, Rocky Mount, Kinston, Wilmington, and Fayetteville. A different plan is to be followed during the coming year and we urge full co-operation by all our pastors and people. We indorse the plan of the Conference and District Missionary Secretaries to hold Sub-District Missionary Institutes in each District during next Spring.

It is gratifying to know from the General Board that the Southeastern Jurisdiction led all others in the sale of the Mission Study Book used during the past year. The study book for the coming year, "Ten Thousand Years," by Bishop James C. Baker, should have a wide circulation in every church.

The Sustentation Fund, adopted by the Conference several years ago has proven a God-send in meeting supplements to pastors' salaries. For the past two years this board has recommended and the conference has adopted an increase in the minimum salary scale. This year we are recommending that the sum of $300 be added to each category, making the minimum salary scale read as follows:

Single men—$1800; Married men without children—$1950; Married men with children—$2100.

We are gratified to note the unusual activity in building enterprises, both churches and parsonages. This board is appropriating a large amount of money to assist in these undertakings and is especially interested in the establishment of new churches where there is such need. A number of new organizations have been formed within the last few years and there is still great need in other areas. We look forward with a great deal of anticipation to the coming of Dr. Fred Shippy, of the General Board, to make surveys of certain cities with reference to the forming of new churches.

While we were pleased with the reports from our districts of the large number of young people deciding for full time Christian service, we realize that this is only a beginning. The shortage of ministers in our Methodist Church has reached an alarming stage. Therefore, we urge our pastors and consecrated laymen, Church School workers, and other leaders of youth to encourage young people to decide for full-time Christian service.

In many instances the pastor will need to follow up these decisions by helping the young people select a college and plan their courses of training. In order that these young people may be able to complete their plans, many of them will need financial help. We urge the churches to make available a loan fund so that they will be able to finish college.

We were happy to have the presence in several of our Board Meetings at this Conference of Dr. Karl Quimby, who sat with us and contributed in a valuable way to our discussions.

We recommend for membership on the General Board of Missions and Church Extension the names of Dr. J. M. Ormond and Mr. M. B. Smith; Jurisdictional Board of Missions and Church Extension, Rev. M. W. Lawrence and Mr. Carl T. Hicks.

We recommend the re-election of Rev. Leon Russell as Conference Missionary Secretary.

J. M. ORMOND, President,
S. J. STARNES, Secretary.

REPORT NO. I—BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Local Church

We appreciate the fine leadership of our Conference staff during the year just closed: Rev. J. G. Phillips, Executive Secretary and Director of Youth Work; Rev. L. C. Vereen, Associate Director of Youth Work and Camp Director; Rev. Troy J. Barrett, part-time assistant to the Executive Secretary, Major W. A. Graham, Director of Adult Work, without salary; and Miss Evelyn F. Cline, Office Manager and Director of Methodist Youth Fund.

The staff report, distributed at Conference, is appended hereto.

We recommend the following special emphases for the year 1947-48:

1. Crusade for Christ. That all churches cooperate in the Crusade for Christ emphasis in the Crusade Council's report adopted by the Conference.

2. Leadership Education. (1) That every pastor lead his workers in a study of the special course on "Crusade for Christ in the Church School" as early as possible during the Conference year. (2) That we seek to develop new certified instructors so that we may have an adequate conference faculty for Christian Workers' Schools within reach of every church. (3) That we set as a goal a minimum of one Standard Christian Workers' School in each sub-district in the Conference. (4) That the development of leaders for Christian family life be a major emphasis during the year.

The report of the Board of Education Treasurer, Wayne G. Starnes, with the certificate of audit, is attached hereto.

A. J. HOBBS, President,
D. L. FOUTS, Secretary.

STAFF REPORT ON CHRISTIAN EDUCATION TO THE BOARD OF EDUCATION AND TO THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE, YEAR 1946-1947

Progress in the Crusade for Christ

1. The North Carolina Conference ranks fifth among the Annual Conferences of the nation in Church School enrollment gains since the beginning of the Crusade for Christ.

2. The Richmond Area, comprising the Virginia and North Carolina Conferences under the leadership of Bishop W. W. Peele, leads all the Episcopal areas in the nation in total increase of Church School enrollment.

3. Many additional volunteers for Christian life service have been enlisted. Great Conference on Christian Vocations held in Durham with over 300 in attendance.

4. Conference-wide Crusade mass meeting on Church School enrollment held at Rocky Mount with about 700 in attendance.

Children's Work

1. Rapid increase of interest and activity in Kindergarten work with evangelical influence.

2. Vacation School work continues as a rising tide in work of Children's Division.

3. Rural Extension Worker gave special attention during the year to childrens work in town and country churches, especially on the Outer Banks.

4. Cooperative program established with Woman's Society in missionary education of children.

Youth Work

1. INTERMEDIATE CAMPS: Five weeks of intermediate camping with 425 young people participating, 42 of these making a Profession of Faith, 42 adult workers assisting in camp activities. Construction work begun at Camp Don-Lee.

2. SENIOR ASSEMBLIES: Four sessions of senior-young peoples assemblies held with 930 young people participating. Additional volunteers for Christian life service brings Conference total above 200. Our Conference Youth were first to fill official quota for National Youth Meeting at Cleveland, Ohio.

3. Four Youth Caravans served in 28 communities, winning 32 young people on Profession of Faith, enlisting a number of full-time volunteers for Christian service and reaching a total of 2,500 young people and adult leaders of youth. Six Youth Fellowship Teams visited many churches in the Conference.

Our young people take ranking leadership in jurisdictional and national Methodist Youth Organizations. An outstanding laboratory session on Missions and World Friendship has been held, and a Methodist Youth Fund special was adopted.

Adult Work

1. Second successful summer conference held.

2. Young Adult financial budget put in operation with a special raised for Belgian Orphanage.

3. Outstanding progress in district and sub-district organization.

4. Our Conference Director of Adult Work is to give an address at the national meeting in Grand Rapids on the work of the Conference Director.

LEADERSHIP EDUCATION has again become a major interest in our Conference, creating a demand for more certified teachers among our own people.

IN STUDENT WORK full-time Directors are at work at Duke University, College Place, Greensboro, Chapel Hill, and Fairmont, Raleigh. A State Director is giving special attention to Methodist students in the smaller colleges and is directing the student work in the State as a whole.

REPORT NO. 2—BOARD OF EDUCATION

College Section

Our educational institutions report large enrollments. Each institution deeply appreciates the cooperation that the North Carolina Conference has given through the Methodist College Advance, the annual appropriations from conference benevolences, and all other ways in which aid has been rendered.

Duke University: For the year ending June 30, 1947, the number of students for the academic year 1946-47 was 5203, and 961 for the 1946 Summer School. There are 531 officers and teachers on the staff. The value of the endowment is over $49,500,000 and the value of the plant and equipment is over $32,800,000.

Louisburg College: Under the leadership of the late Dr. Walter Patten and those associated with him for a decade, Louisburg College was freed of a debt of $200,000. During the same period, the college received contributions from friends, and The Methodist College Advance that have greatly strengthened the institution. The veterans agency of the Federal Government has transferred buildings and equipment to the colleges which makes it possible for Louisburg College to render a greater service to a larger number of veterans. There are a total of 330 students—247 men and 83 women—enrolled for the fall semester. The greatest educational need of the institution is to become accredited by the regional association, the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. Dr. Samuel M. Holton was elected on July 24, 1947 to succeed Dr. Walter Patten as President of Louisburg College. We recommend that the conference pledge itself to support the new President as he seeks to lead the College forward in the service of the Methodist Church and our Lord.

Greensboro College: This is the fourth successive year that Greensboro College reports a capacity enrollment. There are 402 students and North Carolina furnishes 86.4 per cent of the student body. About three-fourths of the students are Methodist. The graduates are demanded for positions in churches in numbers greater than can be supplied from the present enrollment.

High Point College: The enrollment for the year ending June 1, 1947 was: Summer School 1946, 403; Extension Classes, 63; Regular Session Enrollment, 859. A comparative summary for the period 1932 to 1947 shows a net gain in values of $883,942.00; and student enrollment from 275 to 859.

Methodist College Advance

Whereas, a good beginning has been made in North Carolina Methodism towards the goals established by the 1944 Annual Conference in laying the cause of Christian higher education upon the minds, hearts, and consciences of all our people, and acquainting the public with the contribution church institutions have been making to education, of showing that the work of the church in the field of higher education is absolutely essential, and of conducting a financial campaign throughout the state under the guidance of the Bishops of the two Conferences, and

Whereas, approximately $593,000.00 of the $830,000.00 goal of the North Carolina Conference remains to be raised this third year of the College Advance, the great results so far achieved must be conserved, and the interest in Christian higher education continuously fostered; therefore

Be it resolved,

1. That sincere thanks be expressed to all friends of Christian higher education for the support given throughout the North Carolina Conference to the cause through the Methodist College Advance.

2. That special thanks be given to every contributor who has by his donation, large or small, added strength to the forces and increased the resources dedicated to the perpetuation of the Christian Philosophy of Life and the training of Leadership for the Christian church;

3. That we record the passing of two outstanding leaders in the Methodist College Advance campaign during the year—Dr. Holland Holton of Duke University, whose unswerving faith, great devotion, and wise leadership did much to shape the policies and guide the promotion of the College Advance; and Dr. Walter Patten, president of Louisburg College, by whose wise and untiring efforts this College was redeemed from debt and lifted to a position of continuing and large usefulness. We express our love and sympathy to their families;

4. That the campaign for additional pledges and contributions be continued until the Methodist College Advance goals be reached, or until the Annual Conference of 1948. To this end we urge upon each church to raise its goal as early in the year as possible, and send the money collected to the Conference Treasurer, C. A. Dillon, Raleigh, N. C.

5. That all churches, except those that have raised their goals in full, pay the 5% Endowment Fund during the ensuing year.

Fact-Finding Commission

We recommend the establishment of a fact-finding commission to be known as "The Inter-Conference Commission on Church Building at Fairmont Church, Raleigh, and College Place Church, Greensboro," for the purpose of receiving complete information concerning the prospect for an adequate church building at Fairmont Church, Raleigh, which ministers to 1,300 Methodist students enrolled in N. C. State College. This board also recommends that this same commission investigate building needs of the Wesley Foundation at College Place Church, Greensboro, N. C. This commission is to be composed of four members from the Western North Carolina Conference and three members from the North Carolina Conference to be nominated by the Bishop of each Conference and elected by each conference.

Paine College

The Board of Education urges the pastors to observe Race Relations Day the second Sunday in February, and wherever possible to take voluntary offering in accordance with the Discipline, and that the Conference Treasurer be instructed to direct any undesignated Race Relations Day offerings to Paine College.

Appointments Recommended

We recommend the confirmation and appointment of Rev. J. G. Phillips to succeed himself as Executive Secretary of the Board of Education; Rev. Troy J. Barrett, to be Conference Director of Youth Work and State Director of the Methodist Student Movement; Miss Evelyn F. Cline, to be confirmed as Office Manager and Director of Methodist Youth Fund; Rev. LaFon C. REPORT NO. 3—BOARD OF EDUCATION

Resolution for the World Service Commission with Regard to the Camp Don-Lee Offering

In view of the fact that plans and specifications for Camp Don-Lee and the buildings to be erected are now in hand and some construction has begun, and in view of the urgent need to secure funds to continue building for early use in camping, the Board of Education requests that it and its representatives be authorized to raise funds for Camp Don-Lee with a minimum goal of $50,000.00. We request permission to raise the usual Christmas camp offering with a goal of $25,000.00, and permission to solicit $25,000.00 additional through the enlistment of pastoral charges and sub-districts in special building projects at the camp, and through the enlistment of individuals in making substantial contributions, after consultation with the pastor involved. The Executive Committee of the Board of Education would be made responsible for the development and promotion of the plans described above.

J. G. PHILLIPS, Executive Secretary.

Board of Education

North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church

Elizabeth City, N. C.

Gentlemen:

Pursuant to request, I have audited the books and records of the Executive Secretary of the North Carolina Conference Board of Education for the Period from November 1, 1946, through October 15, 1947 and submit the attached statement of Cash Receipts and Disbursements, which in my opinion properly reflects the transactions for that period.

Paid Checks substantiating all disbursements were examined and were traced into the cash book.

The cash receipts were traced into the bank statement and both sides of the cash book were footed. The bank statement for October 15, 1947 was received direct from the Home Savings Bank and was reconciled and found correct.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES F. COUSINS, Certified Public Accountant

November 1, 1947.

REPORT 1—BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

Your Board of Lay Activities has been active throughout the past year in supporting the Conference program on Stewardship as a phase of the Crusade for Christ.

Especially efforts were made to promote a complete observance of Layman's Day, and because of the Conference-wide emphasis on Stewardship, a greater and more enthusiastic participation was secured than ever before.

The Annual Laymen's Retreat was held at Louisburg College, July 5-6. Despite the fact that the Retreat occurred during a holiday week-end, many charge and district lay leaders and other laymen attended, with much benefit to lay work in the entire conference. One of the highlights of the Laymen's Retreat was a discussion led by Major W. A. Graham, Associate District Lay Leader of the Rocky Mount District, with regard to the more or less serious situation facing the Conference by virtue of the fact that a large number of our young ministers must serve charges having from 5 to 7 churches. A committee was appointed to study further this significant problem with a view toward making every possible contribution to the relief of a deplorable situation.

We heartily endorse the program of the Crusade Council and of the Conference for emphasis upon improved Church School membership and attendance and improved quality of Church School instruction. We pledge our unstinted support to this undertaking which is so vital to the total program of the Church.

Respectfully submitted,

W. J. SMITH, Chairman,
S. B. UNDERWOOD, JR., Acting Sec.

REPORT 2—BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

Resolution to the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference

Whereas, the 1948 session of the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference will appoint the General Superintendents to the several Episcopal Areas of the Jurisdiction for the next quadrennium, and

Whereas, Bishop W. W. Peele, by his wise counsel, capable leadership, and brotherly spirit has endeared himself to every minister and layman of the North Carolina Conference, and

Whereas, Bishop Peele has inspired the Conference to undertake and successfully promote a greatly enlarged program of progressive church life throughout the Conference, and

Whereas, his leadership is greatly needed to continue that program,

Therefore, be it resolved, that

The Board of Lay Activities of the North Carolina Conference, in session at Elizabeth City, N. C., on November 7, 1947, does respectfully petition the Jurisdictional Conference to reassign Bishop W. W. Peele as General Superintendent of our Conference for the next quadrennium.

We instruct our delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference to put forth every effort to secure his return.

That a copy of this resolution be sent by the Conference Secretary to the proper Jurisdictional Committee, and a copy to Bishop Peele.

W. J. SMITH, Chairman,
S. B. UNDERWOOD, JR., Acting Sec.

REPORT NO. 1—BOARD OF HOSPITALS AND HOMESSection I—The Methodist Orphanage

With the assurance that not only are the Methodists of the area served by the Methodist Orphanage thoroughly acquainted with the general program carried on by this institution but that, as well, this cause is on the hearts of all our people, we shall omit many details that usually go into a report of this nature, and confine our report to some specific recommendations. We hope by this means to guarantee the continuance of the same type of work that has made our Orphanage outstanding and to assure adequate support for that purpose.

Therefore, we recommend:

1. That the Reverend A. S. Barnes, having been duly elected by the Board of Trustees of the Methodist Orphanage, be continued as Superintendent. The annual salary is $4500.00.

2. That, as heretofore, each fifth Sunday be observed in the Church Schools as Orphanage Sunday, the offering to apply on the regular Orphanage apportionment.

3. That, the Orphanage apportionment for each local church be a sum equal to $7\frac{1}{2}\%$ of the total budget of the year 1946-1947, less deductible items such as money raised for building and repairs, retirement of indebtedness, College Advance, Crusade for Christ, and the like.

This third recommendation should require no explanation. The greatly increased cost of maintenance, plus certain emergency repairs that must be made if we are to care for capacity enrollment, makes it essential that sources of greater revenue be found.

Section II—The Golden Cross

For two years now one-half of all Golden Cross funds collected have been credited to the Districts for service at other than Duke Hospital. The other half has been allocated to service at Duke Hospital and to the salary and other expenses of the field representative.

Under this arrangement the service of Golden Cross has been expanded, not only to a richer ministry of healing, but to include a ministry to the aged and infirm. Though this latter function is new to this annual conference, it is provided for in the Discipline of the Methodist Church.

We recommend:

1. That in each District and in each local church there be a program of education concerning the need for and use of Golden Cross funds.

2. That an offering for Golden Cross be made in each local church on Mother's Day.

3. That the Conference Director of Golden Cross be instructed to make a thorough study of the Blue Cross plan for hospital insurance, the results of such study to be reported to the next session of the annual conference.

4. That the Conference Director of Golden Cross, the treasurer of Golden Cross, and the several District Directors constitute a committee which shall formulate and activate a policy of education and administration for the Golden Cross.

5. That the Secretary of this conference be instructed to convey to Professor F. S. Aldridge a message of thanks for his unselfish and tireless service as Conference Director of Golden Cross.

6. That the Reverend W. V. McRae be named as Golden Cross Director for the North Carolina Conference.

Section III—Retirement Homes

After three years of study and exploration of the problem of retirement homes for our aged and retired preachers and their wives, and in the light of the response to questionnaires sent to all preachers your Board of Hospitals and Homes makes the following recommendations:

1. That each district of this conference be requested and urged to continue to seek funds for building or buying two or more suitable and well located homes in each district during the next conference year.

2. That, since the Board of Hospitals and Homes has no income as a Board, we further recommend that the promotion and carrying forward of the program of district homes be delegated jointly to the district superintendent and district lay leader in each district, and that as soon after the adjournment of this conference as possible, the district superintendents and district lay leaders meet and adopt a unified plan for the seven districts.

Section IV—The Home and Infirmary for the Aged

Your Board is in receipt of a letter which is incorporated in this report and follows:

The Board of Hospitals and Homes of
The North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church
Elizabeth City, North Carolina.

November 3, 1947

Gentlemen:

Through the untiring efforts of Reverend W. V. McRae the Methodist Churches in the City of Durham appointed a general committee to consider the question of raising funds locally to purchase land for the location and erection thereon by our Conference of a Home and Infirmary for the Aged. The committee was interested in this most important and worthwhile undertaking by our Church. After due consideration a sub-committee was named to work with Brother McRae and to find a convenient and suitable location for the Home and Infirmary.

The sub-committee after inspecting and considering many sites has finally found near the City of Durham a tract of land containing approximately thirty (30) acres which it thinks will make an ideal site not only for the Home and Infirmary, but also for cottages. This site is on the Erwin Road and is near Duke University.

The undersigned committee, representing the Methodist Churches in the City of Durham and others interested in the undertaking offers, subject to the conditions hereinafter set forth, to purchase, donate and deed to the Methodist Retirement Homes, Incorporated, the said tract of land containing approximately thirty (30) acres. The conditions on which this offer is made are as follows:—

1. That the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church will agree to erect on said land a Home and Infirmary for the Aged; and
2. That plans to raise the funds necessary to pay for the buildings shall be adopted by the 1948 Conference; and
3. That the Home and Infirmary will be built within a reasonable time after the funds are available.

Yours very truly,

M. M. FOWLER, Chairman,
J. H. BARNES,
MILLARD C. DUNN,
R. L. EAST, JR.,
MARSHALL T. SPEARS, Committee.

Your Board of Hospitals and Homes recommends:

1. That the North Carolina Conference now in session accept this grant and title;
2. That the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church will agree to erect on said land a Home and Infirmary for the Aged; and
3. That plans to raise funds necessary to pay for the buildings shall be submitted to the 1948 Conference; and
4. That the Home and Infirmary will be built within a reasonable time after the funds are available.

L. L. WREN, Chairman,
CARLOS P. WOMACK, Secretary.

Note: The recommendations in section IV of this report were referred to the Commission on World Service and Finance. Report I of that body deals with these items.

REPORT OF BOARD OF EVANGELISM

We have a stewardship of the Gospel. When Jesus said, "Go yet into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature," the early Church took Him seriously. We must take Him seriously and proclaim the good news of salvation faithfully to all. In order that evangelism may be effectively carried on throughout our conference during the coming year, we make the following recommendations and suggestions:

1. That we intensify our program on visitation and assimilation by dividing our Local Church Committee on Evangelism, or our local Church Fellowship of Evangelism, into three groups—that one-third may be responsible for winning new members to Christ and the Church by visitation, one-third for reclaiming inactive members, and one-third for the assimilation of new members.

2. That we lay the ground work in our conference to place in the field sufficient special workers to establish and shepherd new church schools and churches.

3. That we pledge our support to the Conference Board of Education in the emphasis on Church School enrollment and attendance.

4. That during this year of the Crusade we emphasize the importance of winning the parents of children enrolled in our school, as well as all pupils of the Church School.

Note: One church is organizing a Parents' Co-operation League, in which parents agree to attend Sunday School and church services, read The Upper Room, carry on Christian conversations in the home, and read Christian literature.

5. That a School of Evangelism be held in each district, and that where possible, this be held in a church where visitation evangelism was not carried out during the Year of Evangelism. Visiting pastors and laymen should be used in these schools.

6. That district and sub-district meetings be held so that the laymen of each district may receive instruction in visitation evangelism.

Note: The district Director or full-time secretary of evangelism might give the instruction at these group meetings.

7. That the invitation to Christian Discipleship be given at the close of each preaching service.

8. That community-wide surveys continue to be made annually—and kept up to date during the year, as far as possible, and that we seek to win each prospect revealed by the survey.

9. That our Conference Board of Evangelism take steps this year to inaugurate the Christian Family Movement by using the District and Sub-District Work Shop Plan.

Note: That we request Shepherds Magazine to print the programs and lists of literature available for promoting the Christian Family Movement.

10. That our Annual Conference make a planned effort to recruit ministers and other full-time Christian workers.

11. That we request the Commission on World Service and Finance for $1,000.00.

12. That M. C. Dunn be appointed Conference Director of Evangelism.

13. That Luther B. Bridgers be appointed as Conference Evangelist.

REPORT NO. 1—COMMISSION ON WORLD PEACE

Your Commission on World Peace begs leave to report the payment in full of the claim against this Conference of $3,600.00 for the support of Conscientious Objectors during the progress and settlement of World War II, attendance by two representatives at a Peace Seminar held in Atlanta last April, and the appropriation of $100.00 to the use of the nation-wide Peace Commission.

During the period between world wars the Methodist Church took a forthright position disassociating the church from war, which it termed "the world's greatest collective sin." At the same time the church recognized conscientious objection to war as a valid Christian conviction and assured those of its members who hold that conviction that "they have the authority and support of their church." After the nation was involved in hostilities in 1941 the church revised its position so rapidly and drastically as to make it clear that it has not yet reached firm and established conviction on the question of war. While the legal provision for conscientious objectors was maintained, those of our members were in fact given the sympathy and support of only a small minority in the church. We wish to take this occasion to call the church anew to penitent and prayerful search for an understanding of the mind of Christ for his church and his people with regard to war.

Facing the present crisis in world affairs, your Commission desires to present sharply certain PORTENTS OF DISASTER confronting us.

These Weapons Exist—weapons capable of destroying life over continental areas; supersonic rocket missiles capable of flight to far-distant targets; and these weapons are in multiple production by many nations.

Take in connection with these depressing revelations the greed, the strife, and the bitterness exhibited in our domestic economy, and the widening breach in the United Nations Assembly between the East and the West, and the climate of civilization in our era presents a tempest of hurricane force.

On the other hand, certain SIGNS OF PROMISE offer encouragement. The instantcy of America's readiness to bear her massive share of the burden of world-pacification and world-recovery; the adherence of the majority of member nations to the long-range policies of the United Nations Assembly; and the spreading alertness of our own people to face the task of building World Peace with intelligence and determination, are reassuring in the hour of darkness.

What we propose "to do about it" is of commanding importance.

Your Commission on World Peace proposes: 1. That we hold Peace Rallies in selected areas of the Conference; 2. That we earnestly endeavor to break down the barriers of Racism, Classism, Nationalism and Boss Rule wherever these distempers imperil our community life; 3. That we diligently co-operate in the distribution of the literature of World Peace; 4. That we oppose with all our strength the senseless fomenting of enmity and strife by intemperate and distorted press reports of competing agencies.

To the end that these aims may be accomplished, we call upon the members of this Conference, both lay and clerical, to do all in their power to arouse our people to see the gravity of the crisis we face, and to work together vigorously and untiringly till

"Universal Peace

Lie like a shaft of light across the land,
And like a lane of beams athwart the sea,
Thro' all the circle of the golden year."

J. M. CULBRETH, Chairman,
C. W. ROBBINS, Secretary.

REPORT II—COMMITTEE ON WORLD PEACE

The most practical and effective way in which we can now strengthen the bonds of world fellowship is by ministering to the multitudes in other lands who now lack food, clothing, shelter, and other basic necessities. Our government now recognizes that unless this need is met the world is likely to collapse into chaos. Congress has been called in special session to formulate a program of governmental aid. We should give our support to all proper public efforts. But we as churches must continue to provide help for three reasons: 1. The need is so immense that all efforts combined will probably not suffice to meet it fully. 2. Church-administered relief is entirely non-political, and creates bonds of fellowship between all peoples. 3. Because such ministry is the natural and necessary expression of Christian compassion.

We therefore call upon all our preachers and people to continue and increase their efforts to provide funds and goods for relief of suffering, both through the Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief and Church World Service. In particular, we request that all of our churches actively participate in the state-wide material aid collection to be sponsored by the North Carolina Council of Churches

January 25-31, 1948. We also recommend that churches and individuals where possible participate in the project "Heifers for Relief" by which milk cows and goats are shipped to needy areas. Information concerning any of these methods of mercy may be secured from Miss Ruth Elliott, overseas relief consultant, North Carolina Council of Churches, College Station, Durham, N. C.

C. W. ROBBINS, Secretary.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Board of Trustees of the North Carolina Conference met in regular session in the First Methodist Church, Elizabeth City, North Carolina at 2:30 P.M., November 7, 1947.

In the absence of Dr. R. L. Flowers, Chairman, C. A. Dillon, Vice-Chairman, called the meeting to order, and presided during the session.

The minutes of the last regular meeting, held November 8, 1946 were read and approved.

The Secretary reported that the deed to certain property in Franklin County, North Carolina, situated in or near the town of Wood, North Carolina, and being lots 204, 205, 206, and recorded in the Registry of Franklin County, in Book 192, page 596, had been executed, which action was authorized by our Conference in Annual Session in 1945.

J. M. Ormond, Treasurer, submitted his report, together with a statement from G. C. Hendrickson, C. P. A. showing the assets of the Board and receipts and disbursements from November 1, 1946 to October 31, 1947, and statement from Kirchofer & Arnold Associates, Incorporated, showing cost and market value of securities owned by the board. On motion the report was accepted and ordered filed for inclusion in the minutes.

The Treasurer called attention to an error appearing in his report to the last session of our Conference, and published on page 111 of the 1946 Conference Journal; and reading: "Stenographer Charge $271.20." It should read: Stem Charge $271.20. On motion it was ordered that this correction be included in the minutes.

On motion the Treasurer was authorized to pay to J. F. Cousins, Treasurer, the sum of $3500.00 for the benefit of our Conference Claimants.

On motion the Chairman was requested to appoint a committee of two to investigate and report at the next session of the Conference as to the feasibility of appointing a Trust Company to handle the fiscal affairs of the Board.

On motion the Secretary was requested to write a letter of appreciation to J. M. Ormond, retiring Treasurer of the Board.

On motion the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: R. L. Flowers, Chairman; C. A. Dillon, Vice-Chairman; C. E. Jordan, Treasurer; H. I. Glass, Secretary.

On motion the Board adjourned.

C. A. DILLON, Vice-Chairman,
H. I. GLASS, Secretary.

TREASURER'S REPORT—BOARD OF TRUSTEES

This report will be the last one I shall make to the Board of Trustees of the North Carolina Conference because acting upon the advice of my doctors I am asking the Conference to grant me the superannuate relationship. This means automatic loss of membership on the Board. My connection with this Board is almost coterminous with membership in the Conference. For many years the report of the Board was not included in the Conference Journal. The first one to appear was in the Journal of 1930. It says in part: "During the past twenty years the working capital held by the Board of Trustees is $10,038.00. We your Board of Trustees recommend that the Conference allow us to submit a brief report annually and that these reports, beginning with this one, shall be published in the Conference Journal." The Board nominated and the Conference elected "A. S. Barnes, J. H. McCracken, J. F. Bruton, and R. L. Flowers to membership on the Board.

J. T. GIBBS, President,
J. M. ORMOND, Secretary."

I herewith tender the auditor's report as the statement of our financial condition. There should be a balance of approximately $1,800.00 in the Clodfelter note. This added to the list of securities totals more than ninety eight thousand dollars. This shows a gratifying increase over the capital stock of $10,038.00 in 1930.

J. M. ORMOND, Treasurer.

C., and no statement of the present principal balance has been received from them.

The cash transactions for the period from November 1, 1946 to October 31, 1947 have been verified and the attached statement of Receipts and Disbursements is submitted in support of the amount shown as Cash in Bank above.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TEMPERANCE

WHEREAS, the use of intoxicating liquors is admitted universally to be hurtful, both to the persons who use the same and to society generally;

WHEREAS, the legalization of beer throughout North Carolina and the establishment of liquor stores in twenty-eight counties in our State have increased drinking, drunkenness and all of the other evils that accompany the liquor traffic, and,

WHEREAS, the Methodist Church always has been and still is opposed to the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors and opposed to the legalization of the nefarious business;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: By the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church, assembled in Elizabeth City, North Carolina, on this eighth day of November, 1947, as follows:

1. That we deplore the great increase in the sale of beer, wine, and whiskey and the tragic increase in drinking, drunkenness, and the evils that are caused by liquor.

2. That we reaffirm our endorsement of the Allied Church League that has been organized by the Churches of North Carolina for the purpose of combating the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors; that we recommend to the 1947 Session of our Annual Conference that $3,000.00 be appropriated to aid in supporting the work of the Allied Church League; and that all Pastors and other Church Leaders and Church Members throughout our Conference give full cooperation and support to the program and work of the Allied Church League.

3. That, since the purpose of advertising the sale of any merchandise is to increase the sale of the same, we appeal to the owners and publishers of newspapers and other publications, published in North Carolina, to refrain from publishing advertisements of beer, wine, and whiskey; and we urge the General Assembly of North Carolina to enact a statute to prohibit the advertisement of beer, wine, and whiskey in all newspapers and other publications published in North Carolina.

4. That we urge the General Assembly of 1949 to enact statutes to prohibit in North Carolina the manufacture, transportation and sale of beer, wine, whiskey and all other intoxicating liquors; and, if the General Assembly is unwilling to law the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors, we urge the General Assembly to at least give the people of our State the privilege of voting in a State-Wide Referendum for or against the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors.

5. That in order to aid in the development of sentiment against the liquor traffic, we urge that the instruction in our public schools and in our Church Schools relative to the harmful effects of alcohol be made as effective as possible; that our Pastors preach often in behalf of total abstinence; that each Pastor arrange to have presented in his church or churches some such Temperance Drama as "Prisoner at the Bar;" that each year the subject of Temperance be allotted a place in the program of our Annual Conference; and that each year the subject of Temperance be allotted an adequate place in the program of the annual meeting of each District Conference.

6. That, while we welcome all movements and organizations that are working against the manufacture, sale, and use of intoxicating liquors, we are alarmed by the fact that some of these movements are approving and promoting the idea of so-called "moderation" in drinking. Such an attitude or idea is misleading and dangerous. All addicts of alcohol began as moderate drinkers; and, since alcoholic beverages are habit forming, it is dangerous for any person to delude himself with the idea of drinking in moderation. We urge that our Churches, our Church Schools, our Public Schools and all other institutions teach that the individual should abstain completely from drinking beer, wine and whiskey, and that our Government should prohibit the manufacture and sale of these intoxicating liquors. Our position and program with respect to beer, wine, and whiskey should be Total Abstinence by the individual and Absolute Prohibition by our Government.

7. That we beseech all Pastors and other Church Officers that they do not recommend or approve for membership on the Board of Stewards, for service as an Officer or Teacher in the Church School, or for official position in any phase of Church Life, any person, who manufactures, sells, advertises, buys, drinks, or votes for beer, wine, or whiskey.

REPORT OF THE METHODIST BOARD OF PUBLICATION

The circulation of the North Carolina Christian Advocate has increased during the past year from approximately 11,300 to about 16,000. Increased costs and scarcity of materials have been offset by the larger circulation and reduced size of the paper, and operations show a net profit for the fiscal year closing August 31 amounting to $1,413.50. The Board wishes to commend those pastoral charges which have given the Advocate the support which makes this gain possible.

The property of the Board of Publication, which represents both the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences, consists of a building at 429 West Gaston Street, Greensboro, North Carolina, the land on which it is built, machinery, furniture, and equipment, and an endowment fund. The land and the building cost $92,000 when acquired about 20 years ago. The building needs extensive repairs. The machinery and equipment which cost a total of $54,587, are for the most part in fair operating condition, but will require repairs and replacements from time to time. The furniture and fixtures, which cost about $4,500, are in fair condition. The net worth of the corporation excluding its endowment fund is estimated at $77,960.16. The endowment fund, which is managed by the executive committee of the Board through the fiscal agency of the Wachovia Bank and Trust Company of Winston-Salem, has a book value of $50,020.13. During the year which closed September 30, 1947, the endowment fund earned and income of $1,455.93, and a total earning of 1,624.83 since August 1, 1946.

Additions to the principal sum of the endowment fund total $1,983.55 during the year.

The books of the corporation were audited by Lindsay, Squires and Everett, certified public accountants August 31, and the latest report of the fiscal agent of the endowment fund was made September 26.

While the main business of the corporation is the publication of the North Carolina Christian Advocate, more than half of its income is derived from commercial and job printing. The publication of the Advocate costs more than the income from subscriptions, and advertising by several thousands of dollars. In order to maintain the paper's standards of quality without increasing its price the following recommendations are made to the two Conferences:

1. That a number of new and renewal subscriptions equal to 7% of its active members be set as the goal for each pastoral charge for the Conference year.
2. That the month of January be set apart as Advocate Month and that pastors and Advocate representatives in each charge devote the necessary effort to reach subscription goals during that month.
3. That the Advocate Endowment Fund goal for each charge be continued as an amount equal to 5% of the pastor's salary, and that charges which have not yet paid this amount be urged to contribute it.
4. That Dr. C. E. Jordan, whose term expires this year, be re-elected to membership on the Board by the North Carolina Conference, and that Dr. S. B. Turrentine, whose term expires this year be re-elected to membership on the Board by the Western North Carolina Conference each for a term of five years.

The following officers for the ensuing years were elected: A. J. Hobbs, president; N. L. Eure, vice-president; Thomas C. Hoyle, secretary. H. C. Sprinkle, Jr. was re-elected editor and business manager.

The members of the board from the North Carolina Conference are: A. J. Hobbs, H. C. Smith, C. E. Jordan, N. E. Edgerton and John Hackney. Members of the board from the Western North Carolina Conference are: Thomas C. Hoyle, S. B. Turrentine, N. L. Eure, John W. Moore and W. B. Hall.

REPORT OF THE WESLEY FOUNDATION COMMISSION

The extent of the responsibility of our two Methodist Conferences in North Carolina to college and university students may be partially grasped by considering the fact that there are approximately 1,700 Methodist students at Chapel Hill, 1,300 at State College, and 660 at the Woman's College, Greensboro. These three schools are those where we have been contributing to the support of full-time Wesley Foundation Directors. At College Place, Miss Hazel Cousins, a Scarritt College graduate has succeeded Miss Louise Panigot. At Fairmont, Raleigh, Rev. C. S. McCoy, a minister in the North Carolina Conference, graduate of Duke Divinity School, and former Navy Chaplain has begun serving as Director, subject to the appointive responsibility of the Cabinet. He is acting as successor to Rev. John Hamm. At Chapel Hill, Rev. J. Robert Nelson continues his effective service as Director.

Your Wesley Foundation Commission has made a new arrangement whereby strong leadership can be given to the Methodist Student groups in the majority of the 38 colleges and universities where there is not an employed director. At only five of these thirty-eight schools we find an employed leader for Methodist student activities. These five are Duke University, East Carolina Teachers' College, and the three branches of the University of North Carolina. Your Wesley Foundation Commission, in cooperation with the Student Department of the General Board of Education has secured the services of Rev. Troy J. Barrett as State Director for the Methodist Student Movement. His most urgent immediate responsibility will be that of activating a Methodist Student Fellowship on every campus where we have Methodist Students. He has received every encouragement in this, both from student groups and college administrations in both state schools and colleges related to other denominations. Through his services many hundreds of Methodist students will come to share actively in the Methodist Student activities and the church will find among them many strong volunteer or full-time Christian workers. Troy Barrett will also have the responsibility of leading in the state-wide features of the Methodist student program. Until the present, the state-wide activities have been greatly handicapped on account of not having a leader, except a volunteer person whose entire time was obligated to local duties.

Your Wesley Foundation Commission wishes to thank the conference for a growing interest in Student Work and for the increasing financial support given. We recommend a continued increase in interest until the need is adequately met.

The annual financial statement of the Treasurer, J. G. Phillips, and the statement of the auditor are attached to this report and submitted to the Annual Conference for printing in the Journal.

Respectfully submitted,

W. A. STANBURY, Chairman,
C. S. HUBBARD, Vice-Chairman,
J. G. PHILLIPS, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RURAL CHURCH POLICY AND STRATEGY

Report No. 1

The undersigned committee respectfully submits the following in response to appointment by Bishop Peele to prepare a proposed rural policy and strategy for the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church.

I—Preface

We recognize the fact that the rural areas are the fountain heads of resources in terms of leadership, population, religious and economic life, and that many of these areas are now suffering religious and cultural depletion.

This fact calls for an awakened church consciousness of the significance of the rural community, issuing in a growing statesmanship and strategy that will develop religious institutions adequate to create and conserve the religious and cultural values in rural community life.

II—Policy

The North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Church recognizes the basic significance of the rural church to the total life of the church, and recognizes the gradual decline in strength of the rural church, and regrets the inadequate policy heretofore pursued with reference to it. Therefore, the Conference does at this time commit itself to the policy of mobilizing its total resources to provide a ministry of adequate scope and effectiveness to the rural people of our Conference area.

III—Strategy

The following is proposed for adoption as a present implementation of the foregoing policy:

1. The Bishop is requested to appoint a permanent Annual Conference Committee on Rural Church Planning. This Committee would have the responsibility of progressively implementing the policy as stated in section II of this paper, by proposing procedures to the Bishop, the District Superintendents, the Board and Commissions of the Conference, and to the Annual Conference. It is suggested that the rural lay representation be included on the Committee.

2. The Bishop is requested to appoint a permanent Annual Conference Committee on Rural Research. The Commission on World Service and Finance is requested to appropriate the amount of $1,500.00 to this Committee for expenses, for the conference year now beginning. The Committee is directed to make studies at least along the following lines, using sound research methods, and report to the Annual Conference Committee on Rural Church Planning:

- a. Provide statistics of birth rate and population trends on a conference-wide basis.

- b. Provide Conference with data on government area planning.

- c. Provide Conference with data on Roman Catholic expansion program.

- d. Make a study of the effect of farm tenantry on the country church in our Conference area, and indicate some basic procedures in a strategy to meet the particular problems created by the tenant system.

- e. Survey one typical large town or city church in our Conference, to determine the place of birth of each of its members.

- f. Work out a master plan of charges for the entire Conference in which at least the following items would be included.

1. Circuits would include only three churches, preferably, and never more than four.

2. Circuits would follow natural community lines.

3. "No man's land" pockets between charges would be eliminated.

4. Churches in need of relocation would be noted.

5. Churches which should be made stations would be noted.

6. Discover closed churches.

7. Discover dying churches and recommend specific action concerning each.

8. Discover undeveloped charges having an unusual potentiality, to which special salary supplements should be made, thus aiding them to become self-supporting appointments.

9. Discover open fields for church extension.

3. The Chairman of the Town and Country Commission is requested to appoint a Committee on Rural Pastors' Salaries, who would study the matter of the present salaries of rural preachers and report to the Annual Conference Committee on Rural Church Planning as to any needed adjustments with suggested ways and means of achieving such. The appointment of said committee would be ratified by the present Annual Conference.

4. The Chairman of the Town and Country Commission is requested to appoint a Committee on Rural Parsonages, who would make a conference-wide survey of the condition and equipment of rural parsonages and report to the Annual Conference Committee on Rural Church Planning. The appointment of said committee would be ratified by the present Annual Conference.

5. The Chairman of the Town and Country Commission is requested to appoint a permanent Committee on Experimental Rural Parish Projects, which committee is hereby authorized to receive request from charges concerned, make studies and when deemed wise, place such projects on what would be termed an "Approved List of Experimental Rural Parish Projects." In each case, a report would be made to the Annual Conference Committee on Rural Church Planning, and would suggest ways and means of safeguarding and sustaining the project while in early stages of development. The appointment of said committee would be ratified by the present Annual Conference.

6. The Annual Conference is requested in its immediate general planning, to initiate and promote on a conference-wide basis a well studied and comprehensive evangelical rural youth movement.

7. The Commission on World Service and Finance is requested to approve, effective this conference year now beginning, an allowance of $150.00 for expenses of the officers and committees of the Town and Country Commission.

8. Effective this conference year now beginning, the rural pastor shall receive from his charge, mileage payment for his car at the rate of $.03 per mile for exclusively church travel, both local and general. This operational cost shall be paid over and above stated salary. This is to apply only to churches served in communities having a population of 1500 or less, and only in instances where the total salary is not more than $2400.00, but is recommended for all rural charges. This District Superintendents are authorized to interpret and apply this legislation, in the spirit rather than the letter of the law.

Respectfully submitted,

W. L. CLEGG, Chairman,
W. A. CROW,
T. M. GRANT,
I. T. POOLE,
B. B. SLAUGHTER,
K. W. TAYLOR.

Note: This entire report was adopted by the conference. Later, however a resolution was offered as a substitute for section 8. The resolution was adopted and it appears under "Resolutions."—Editor.

Report No. 2

Recommendations

1. A growing sense of divine mission on the part of our rural churches and ministry is of basic importance to the solution of the rural church problem.

2. As a general principle, the undeveloped rural parishes should have first call upon the most capable men of our ministry.

3. As a general principle, longer rural pastorates are suggested in order that long range programs can be executed.

4. Fair recognition ought to be given accepted supply pastors in participation in conference programs and activities, and a long range program of training which would prepare and qualify them for full participation in all benefits enjoyed by conference members, ought to be made available to them.

5. There could well be an increased use of rural pastors and laymen in our Annual and District Conference committees, programs, and activities.

6. Since most of our church is rural and nearly all pastors at least begin on rural work, we recommend that basic rural training be given all ministerial students in our colleges and divinity schools.

7. A training program for laymen which would develop and use their talents and resources, and give them encouragement, inspiration, and skill in serving the community through the local church, is in need of being developed.

8. It would be most helpful if all circuit churches could have at least one service each Sunday. The use of lay preachers, audio-visual aids, and community religious sings would be means toward such a goal. The editing and publishing interests of the church might well be requested to explore the field of the preparation of sermon, worship, and teaching materials which could be used effectively by lay leaders in regular church services.

9. The rural church might profitably promote parent study groups and fellowship discussions, to unify community life, to enrich family life, to encourage establishment of family altars, to encourage family ownership and operation of farms.

10. Since rural people are undeveloped in a sense of stewardship, we suggest a continued and intensive emphasis on the stewardship of land and its products, and of livestock, as well as money

11. The Lord's Acre Plan, and the Harvest Festival Plan, have real merit as stewardship methods.

12. The Conference Credit Union is recognized as a mutually helpful organization, and is commended to the ministers for their fuller participation in its benefits and services.

13. The rural church could justifiably take an interest in promoting community cooperatives, especially where marketing facilities are not adequate.

14. A great resource is generally being overlooked as found in the national, state, and county social agencies. It is suggested that at District Conference, agencies such as Soil Conservation Service, Farm Security Administration, Federal Security Agency of Vocational Rehabilitation, State Commission for the Blind, County Farm, Home Demonstration Agency, County Welfare Department, and County Health Department, be represented and presented. It is also suggested that local churches present representatives of the organizations from time to time.

Also non-governmental agencies as the Grange, Farm Bureau, Future Farmers of America, 4-H Clubs, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, could profitably be utilized in the same manner.

15. The preacher-farmer parish plan is past the experimental stage in some conferences, and is worthy of being tried under suitable circumstances in our Conference.

16. The use of outpost Sunday Schools has been highly successful in some denominational programs. A more extensive use of this plan by our Conference would undoubtedly prove fruitful.

17. The use of tent evangelism in initiating new work in certain areas has proved to be practicable.

18. The use of the Sunday School bus is now past the experimental stage and is very effective in certain types of communities.

19. The group ministry plan has been used effectively in many of the Annual Conferences, and under favorable conditions, it might well be considered for use here.

20. The practice of trading out weak churches with other denominations is of sound policy. The Conference would be wise in articulating a policy on this.

Also the time has fully come when Protestant overlapping in rural communities should be viewed as disgraceful and dissipative. It would be becoming for the Methodists in our Conference area to lead out in seeking a constructive solution to this problem.

21. Many of the country church buildings are in need of beautification and remodeling, in order to provide an adequate ministry of worship and education to all the people of the community.

22. Every rural church should have facilities which would enable it to be the center of social life in the community.

North Carolina Conference,
Rocky Mount, North Carolina.

Dear Sir:

We have audited the books and financial records of Mr. C. A. Dillon, Treasurer of the North Carolina Conference, for the period beginning December 1, 1946, and ended November 30, 1947, and in connection therewith we examined and verified the Treasurer's annual report which was prepared by Mr. Haslin Simon, Assistant Treasurer, for publication in the Conference Journal of Proceedings.

In our opinion, this report, copy of which is enclosed herewith, correctly shows all receipts properly classified for the various causes during the period. The disbursements as shown were made in accordance with the apportionments for World Service and Conference Benevolences as recommended by the Commission on World Service and Finance, and the balances of unexpended funds at November 30, 1947, are correctly stated.

Respectfully submitted,

October: Make a special study of how to keep the Church School roll and how to make proper report of total enrollment and average attendance.

Complete the Crusade recommendation of a "quarterly check-up" on enrollment and attendance gains, and compare with goals set for Crusade gains.

R. W. BRADSHAW, Chairman.

We have examined the attached Statement of Cash Receipts and Disbursements of Samuel W. Ruark, Treasurer, North Carolina Conference Crusade for Christ Council, Raleigh North Carolina.

We have found the receipts properly deposited with the Security National Bank, Raleigh, North Carolina, and the disbursements properly supported by documentary evidence. In our opinion, the attached statement of Cash Receipts and Disbursements correctly reports the cash transactions for the year ended November 3, 1947.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAMS & URQUHART.

REPORT OF METHODIST STUDENT CENTER—GREENVILLE, N. C.

The campus of East Carolina Teachers College has undergone a great change this past year due to the large number of ex-service men entering college. 165 ex-service men entered college in the fall quarter 1946, and were in our Methodist group. College enrollment increased from 918 fall of 1945 to 1,220 fall of 1946. Winter Quarter 1946-47 Methodist enrollment was—200 women, 151 men,—351. We have endeavored to meet the needs of these students with a program centered around the objective:

"To brings students to know God through Jesus Christ and to express His spirit in all life's relationships."

Contact was made with all our students through personal visits, letters, invitations to church services, and to all meetings and social events of the Wesley Foundation. Our WF Council members welcomed all new students and assisted them with registration and getting settled in the dormitories, introduced them to the Counselor and the Student Center. They called at the dormitory parlors and accompanied them to Sunday school and church on the first three Sundays in the Fall quarter. The new students were entertained at the Student Center and a big party for all Methodist students and faculty members was given in the social rooms of the church in cooperation with the local Woman's Society of Christian Service.

The Wesley Foundation Council met every week and the Commissions held regular meetings. An effort was made to bring all students into active participation in the program through one of the Commissions—Worship, Personnel, World Friendship, Community Service, Recreation, Music, Literature and Training, Publicity, Church Relations, and Drama. Worship and panel discussions led by the students, and a study of the personality and principles of Jesus and the meaning of the Christian life by the Counselor, were features of the student class in the Church School on Sunday mornings. Approximately 200 students attended this Class during the year. A large majority of our students attend morning service in the Church. On Sunday evenings a group met in the Student Center for informal bag supper, followed by a period of worship, and an informal discussion led by the Counselor on the meaning of church membership, doctrines and rules of the Methodist Church, difference between Protestantism and Roman Catholicism. A class was prepared by the Counselor and received by the pastor into Church Membership on Palm Sunday,—two by baptism, two by vows. Meditation was held every Wednesday evening during Lent and a special offering made on Palm Sunday for overseas relief.

The Drama Group presented a one-act play, "Simon the Leper," as a part of the Church observance of Holy Week. On May 18, this group also presented a one-act play "Mansions," together with the chorus of Negro High School in concert. An offering was taken and divided equally between the Drama Group and the Negro choir. A dramatic service, "Incarnate," written by a member of the group, was presented just before Christmas holidays, and another dramatic service at the time of commissioning officers for the ensuing year.

Eleven students and the Counselor attended the Regional Student Conference at Lake Junaluska, 12 students and Counselor attended the State Student Conference. Two Retreats, one in spring and one in the fall were held for Wesley Foundation officers; one student served in Youth Caravan; several of our students gave excellent service during summer vacation in the home churches.

Contributions were made through church and community channels to overseas relief; toward clothing a girl in the Methodist Orphanage; through Methodist Student Fellowship fund to students in Germany and Japan; through campus drive for W.S.S.F.; and to the local Church School.

420 different students paid a total of 6,876 visits to the Student Center. The Counselor held 1,044 personal conferences. Many of the ex-service men, as well as other students, are finding the Methodist Student Center a real "home away from home," and appreciate the Christian fellowship which it offers.

Respectfully submitted,

(Deaconess) MAMIEJ CHANDLER, Director,
Wesley Foundation, E. C. T. C.

MINISTERS' RETIREMENT FUND

Mr. James F. Cousins, Treasurer,
Ministers Retirement Fund,
Durham, North Carolina.

Dear Mr. Cousins:

I have made an examination of the Cash Receipts and Disbursements of the Minister's Retirement Fund for the Conference year 1946-47 and submit herewith a statement of the receipts and disbursements for that period.

All recorded cash receipts were traced into the bank account and all disbursements were verified by examination of cancelled checks. Cash in the Fidelity Bank, Durham, North Carolina on November 30, 1947 was verified by reconciliation of the statement furnished by the bank. Investments totaling $67,354.17 were verified by inspection.

The attached statement showing payments to Minister's Retirement Fund by individuals and by charges was verified by actual check to individual accounts. In addition, all duplicate receipts on hand were added and found to be in agreement with the cash receipts as shown.

Based upon the examination made, it is my opinion that the attached cash cash receipt and disbursement statements show correctly the financial transactions of the Minister's Retirement Fund for the Conference year 1946-47, and that the balances as shown on hand at November 30, 1947 are correct.

Respectfully submitted,

ARTHUR W. KNIGHT,
Certified Public Accountant.

Rev. H. Freo Surratt, Treasurer
North Carolina Conference Brotherhood
Edenton, N. C.

Dear Sir:

As requested by you I have made an examination of the books and records of the North Carolina Conference Brotherhood for the period from November 21, 1946 to November 1, 1947 and submit my report herewith consisting of the following two Exhibits:

Exhibit A—Statement of Cash Receipts and Disbursements.

Exhibit B—Reconciliation of Bank Account.

All receipts were properly accounted for and traced into the Bank Account.

All disbursements were made by check. All cancelled checks were examined and apparently were drawn for purposes indicated by your records. Endorsements on all checks were examined and appeared to be proper.

Your records indicate that among the assets is stock of the Co-operative Building & Loan Association, Wilmington, N. C. The stock certificate was not inspected by me.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN A. KRAMER.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS OF THANKS

When we were welcomed to your fair city and stately church on the first morning of this conference, we heard an unusual note in the salutation of your chosen speaker.

We were told that we were welcomed to this place as a forum for the free expression of honest opinion, as a theatre of noble striving in the art of living together, and as a sanctuary where we might hear the accents of a speaking God.

Our gratitude for that word has been multiplied infinitely by the fulfillment of the promise it contained.

We have here felt the uplift of soaring ideals in speech, and in music, the shock of challenges that cannot be denied, the reassurance desperately needed by men who grope in uncertainty and misguidance. Every messenger and every voice lifted in the service of our heart-felt need receives now the full measure of our uncalculated devotion.

And while we went about our business untroubled by a thought as to what we should eat or as to shelter for our heads, hundreds of hearts beat and thousands of hands labored that we should not want any good thing. For this ministry to our bodily comfort and constant renewal, our hearts overflow with impartial thanksgiving.

As essential as the crew of a trans-ocean air-liner are the Bishop and his cabinet and their staff of secretaries to the management and on-going of this conference. In this year of extraordinary duties, incident to the closing of a quadrennium, we wish to write into the record and extend herewith to Bishop Peele and the personnel of his assistants our warm and understanding appreciation of the masterful way in which they have directed the business of the Conference.

Being human, we like for the world to learn of our achievements; being practical, we want to disseminate the ideas which are distilled into programs and plans. We therefore acknowledge our over-draft obligation to the men who have commanded the power of the press and the radio and the means of inter-communication in the service of our enhancing business.

As God has given us days of sunshine and blue skies and the glory of the stars for beauty, so has our host city and the people been pleased to spread around us a wealth of glowing blossoms and autumn leaf for our delight. And as we thank God "for the beauty of the earth," we thank them for the beauty of the streets, for the beauty of the Church, and for the beauty of the house, where live our friends, and where reside our dearest hopes and highest possibilities.

D. D. HOLT,
A. S. PARKER,
J. M. CULBRETH.

RESOLUTION PERTAINING TO THE ELECTION OF DISTRICT LAY LEADERS

Whereas it is thought that the District Lay Leader and his associates should be elected by the District Conference in which he and his associates are to serve which is thought to be more democratic.

Now therefore be it resolved:

1. That each District Conference at its annual regular meeting elect its District Lay Leader and his associates to serve for one year beginning at the next Annual Conference or until their successors are elected and qualified.

2. That all such Lay Leaders and Associates above mentioned who are elected at this conference serve for this Conference year.

Respectfully submitted.

RESOLUTION PERTAINING TO TRANSFER OF PROPERTY AT LOUISBURG COLLEGE

Whereas the Board of Trustees of Louisburg College desires to transfer a small parcel of the campus grounds of 1/19th of an acre by a deed duly executed by the said Board, this Conference gives the transaction its permission and consent.

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON GREEN HILL PROPERTY

The Green Hill property, located in Franklin County, near Louisburg College, carries some measure of historical interests. However, the members of your committee hardly feel that we are justified in recommending to the North Carolina Conference, that the Conference purchase this property for a Religious Shrine. The property involved would cost the Conference $12,000. Therefore, after considering the expense, and the limited historical values of the properties, together with the doubtful practical utilization of the property, we do not feel disposed to recommend its purchase at this time.

MRS. GURNEY P. HOOD,

RESOLUTION OFFERED AS A SUBSTITUTE FOR SECTION 8 PART III OF REPORT I OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON RURAL POLICY AND STRATEGY

(a) Effective this conference year now beginning we suggest and urge that each rural pastor receive from his charge, mileage payment for his car at the rate of .03 per mile for exclusively church business travel, both local and general. This operational cost shall be paid over and above stated salary. This is to apply only to churches served in communities having a population of 1,500 or less and shall apply only to charges paying a salary of $2400 or less.

(b) We suggest that charges not included under paragraph (a) be given the privilege of contributing and urged to contribute to a fund to be administered by the District Superintendent for supplementing the mileage payments suggested in paragraph (a).

(c) We recommend that the Committee on Rural Research make a study during the year of mileage costs for preachers included in paragraph (a) and bring to the next session of the Annual Conference a recommendation for putting the matter of payment of mileage costs to such preachers on a permanent basis.

RESOLUTION ON COMPULSORY MILITARY TRAINING

RESOLVED:

1. That we pledge to the President of the United States, the Congress, and the Diplomatic Corps our earnest and prayerful support in all endeavors to strengthen the statesmanship and influence of our representatives in the United Nations, as they labor to promote international understanding, allay strife and suspicion, and prevent the possible occurrence of another World War.

2. That, being unable to see how, under conditions of modern warfare, and particularly atomic warfare in case war should come, either military effectiveness or social or moral welfare in any of their aspects would be furthered by a program of Compulsory Military Training in time of peace as has been proposed and is now pending in Congress, and believing that the funds expended in such program of Universal Military Training could be much more profitably spent in promoting universal good-will among the nations of the earth, we record ourselves as being unalterably opposed to such Universal Military Training, and respectfully petition the Congress of the United States not to enact into law the bills by which it would be set up.

R. G. DAWSON,
H. I. GLASS.

RESOLUTION TO THE SOUTHEASTERN JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCE

Whereas, the 1948 session of the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference will appoint the General Superintendents to the several Episcopal Areas of the Jurisdiction for the next quadrennium, and

Whereas, Bishop W. W. Peele, by his wise counsel, capable leadership, and brotherly spirit has endeared himself to every Minister and Layman of the North Carolina Conference, and

Whereas, Bishop Peele has inspired the Conference to undertake and successfully promote a greatly enlarged program of progressive church life throughout the Conference, and

Whereas, his leadership is greatly needed to continue that program,
Therefore, be it resolved, that

We, the members of the North Carolina Conference, in session at Elizabeth City, N. C., November 5-9, do respectfully petition the Jurisdictional Conference to reassign Bishop W. W. Peele as General Superintendent of our Conference for the next quadrennium.

We instruct our delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference to put forth every effort to secure his return.

That a copy of this resolution be sent by the Conference Secretary to the proper Jurisdictional Committee, and a copy to Bishop Peele.

We, the members of the North Carolina Conference in Annual Session at Elizabeth City, N. C., November 5-11, 1947, memorialize the General Conference to reply favorably to the call of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America to a plenary conference of churches looking toward greater church unity, and to make provisions necessary for the participation of our church in such a conference.

MINISTRY

The North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction respectfully memorializes the General Conference to amend the Discipline at Part V, Chapter II, Section VIII, Par. 806 by inserting after the words, "number of dependents in the family" the words, "years of service in an Annual Conference," so the amended paragraph would then read as follows:

"Each Annual Conference, after careful study of its needs and its sources of income for ministerial support, may adopt a schedule of minimum support for its pastors, including full-time accepted supply pastors. The schedule may allow for differences in living conditions, numbers of dependents in the family, year of service in an Annual Conference, or any other variants, as directed by the Annual Conference."

Also that Par. 809, in Chapter II, Section VIII, Part V, be amended by adding to the paragraph the following: "Ministerial members and accepted supplies shall remit to the treasurer of this fund the proportion of the apportionments due from them not less often than once every three months," so that the paragraph would then read as follows:

"Should the Annual Conference judge that additional funds are needed to supplement the funds provided for in Par. 808, apportionments may be made for the same to the ministerial members and the accepted supplies in the form of a percentage of that part of the salary of each over and above the amount which the conference has designated as the minimum salary level. Ministerial members and accepted supplies shall remit to the treasurer of this fund the proportion of the apportionment due from them not less often than once every three months."

W. L. CLEGG,
H. C. SMITH.

MINISTRY

We respectfully memorialize the General Conference to add to paragraph 432, section one, of the 1944 Discipline, the following: "Provided further that no minister can be transferred from one Conference into another without the majority approval of the District Superintendents of the Conference into which the transfer is to be made."

Memorial to the General Conference Concerning Changes in Pastor's Report to Annual Conference—Tables I and II

We, the members of the North Carolina Conference in Annual Session at Elizabeth City, N. C., November 5-11, 1947 memorialize the General Conference to instruct the Commission on Records, Forms and Statistical Blanks for the en-suings quadrennium, to re-study and revise Statistical Tables I and II entitled, "Pastor's Report to Annual Conference," with a view to simplifying, condensing and re-grouping items in the Report hereinafter specified.

5. Take item 34—"Paid for Local Work" (W.S.C.S.)—from Table I, and place it as a separate item in the first Section, "Expenditures for Local Church," Part One Table II.

6. Take items 45 and 46—"Pastor's Salary Estimated" and "Paid Pastor and Associate"—out of Part One, Table II, and place them as first items in Part Two; thus, grouping all items of "Ministerial Support" in one section, or extend Part One to include all items of "Ministerial Support"; or, arrange Table II in three parts; Part One to include all "Expenditures for Local Church"; Part Two to include all items in "Ministerial Support"; Part Three to include all items of "Benevolences."

ADDRESS DELIVERED TO THE CLASS WHICH WAS RECEIVED INTO FULL CONNECTION

by Josephus Daniels

The Honorable Josephus Daniels was asked by the Committee on Program of the Conference to address the class to be received into Full Connection on Thursday Morning, November 6. The following is the address which he delivered and is printed in the Journal by vote of the conference.

In a life spared beyond the scriptural threescore and ten I have been privileged at Monticello to read the Declaration of Independence from the porch of the shrine of my political mentor; to stand in City Roads Chapel in London in the pulpit of my religious patron saint; to serve as delegate to the General Conference of our church and have part in the election of great souls to the office of bishop; to sit in council with America's chief official apostles of peace in two wars. All these honors were beyond my deserving. But I speak sincerely when I say to you that no honor has come to me, unworthy as I am, that so humbles me as to be asked to give counsel to the young ministers called of God to minister at holy altars. I protested my inadequacy when Bishop Peele gave me this appointment. Two things, aside from loyalty to the constituted authority of my church, however compelled acceptance of the assignment.

1. One was that if my sainted Methodist mother were alive she would say to me, as I have heard her say to not a few young preachers; "God guides the Bishop in sending men where He needs them and where He will crown their work with His favor."

2. My mother's chief disappointment in life was that her one unanswered prayer was that one of her sons was not called of God to preach the gospel. She would have felt more highly honored by such service than if either had inspired listening senates or been elevated to the chief magistracy of the republic. And I shared and share the belief that you young Wesleyans are coming into the most exalted station among men, at a time that will challenge all that is best within you. I can truly say that if the voice of God had called me to the ministry in my young manhood, as my mother hoped, I would then have gladly said "Here am I—Send me."

Not called to the ministry, I have sat at the feet of a beloved pastor, Bishop Peele, and other Christian leaders in the holy office into which you are entering this day. I cherish the hope that I have been directed in some measure to advance righteous causes with the pen.

It may be more than a coincidence that today you take the vows in a section early blessed by the ministry of Asbury. That Prophet of the Long Road preached in Elizabeth City in 1804 and spread the gospel in North Carolina as an itinerant to listening pioneers along the Pasquotank River; in the State Capital building at Raleigh; presided over the first Methodist Conference in this State on April 20, 1785 at the home of Green Hill in Franklin County; and left his footprints on the shores of Lake Junaluska, the seat of the Methodist Summer Assembly. May I not challenge you to follow in the footsteps of Asbury, the first bishop of Methodism in the New World? He traveled 270,000 miles on horseback and preached 16,275 sermons and left an impress upon our church and commonwealth that has been the human rock upon which Methodism has built a great evangelistic church. And in this city, where people heard him gladly over a century ago, the seed he planted is still bearing fruit after its kind. Your church today will give you its imprimatur and your brethren will pray that a double portion of the spirit of the Christ and of the founders of our church may fall upon you in the hour of your consecration.

If I am in the least worthy to counsel with you in this your day of high adventure, I would express the earnest hope that you will be saved from clerical professionalism, which tends to dependence on ritualism, forms of worship and dress, and in the belief that the gospel is to be proclaimed only in consecrated sanctuaries.

The early Methodists had a choice to make when the Wesley direction "The world is my parish" became their marching orders and brought them early to the New World. That choice was whether to blaze new trails in the New World or to hold fast to the patterns and rituals of the English established church in which Wesley was reared, but which disowned him when he felt the compulsion to carry the gospel where forgotten peoples were toiling in the fields, mining coal in the bowels of the earth at Newcastle, and to dwellers in the slums of cities where the voice of the preacher was seldom heard and social welfare had not come to mitigate human miseries.

I beg of you to follow the long road blazed by the early Methodists of America—Asbury, Strawbridge and like men who gathered at the celebrated Christmas Conference in Baltimore to make the Methodist Episcopal Church the first independent national ecclesiastical organization in America. Wesley's political pamphlets upholding George III's policy toward the colonists put Methodists in America under suspicion as Tories, and but for the downright patriotism of Rev. Robert Strawbridge—"eloquent, firey, and fluent preacher" and other like native young American preachers, that one error of Wesley might have militated against the acceptance of Methodism when the colonies became a free republic. The pioneer revolutionary American preachers declared that American Methodists had no traditional attachment to the Anglican church and did not hold to deferential sympathy or accept the doctrine of apostolic succession as held by the English church. Convinced that they knew the only American way better than anyone outside the new republic, Wesley later followed their lead and the ties that had bound them to the established church were cut, and, as free and independent, the Methodist church grew to lead all creeds in membership in the New World. Is there not a lesson in this history as a perfect answer and protest against the present-day propaganda for a union of all Protestants in one organized body and the suggestion that all the nations of the earth be governed by a parliament of man in One World? They forget the teachings of history. There are more dangers in Bigness in industry and the church than any other pitfall—except danger of war—concentrated in overlarge organizations. Nations and churches are strong because they are "alike in differences."

All Methodists should bear in mind and make it their goal today to measure up, at least in spirit to what Greene in his "History of the English People" said of Methodists:

"The great body which he (Wesley) thus founded numbered a hundred thousand members at his death and now counts its members in England and America by millions. But the Methodists themselves were the least result of the Methodist revival. Its action upon the church broke the lethargy of the clergy; and the 'Evangelical' movement, which found representatives like Newton and Cecil within the pale of the Establishment, made the fox-hunting parson and the absentee rector at last impossible.

Methodism in the New World went with the pioneers as they felled the trees to make dwelling places in the wilderness. The circuit riders did not wait for the erection of church buildings but preached to the people in the open or in their temporary homes as they trekked from the seaboard on their way to building a democratic republic on Christian principles in the South and West. Is there not here a lesson to the preachers of our day when many people who most need the healing of the gospel do not enter the doors of the church? If the people do not go to church, the call is for the preacher to carry the message wherever they stand in need of its saving grace in the crowded streets and in the byways. That was the call your predecessors in the gospel heard and answered. Perhaps the greatest blunder of Methodism in England, was that it failed to see the fields white unto the harvest that beckoned a dynamic Methodist, General William Booth, to service among the down and out. That failure made the Salvation Army the great independent agency which challenges the church today to a like carrying of the gospel to the unchurched.

Perhaps, instead of affirmative counsel, a layman should suggest from the pew a few Don't's as you enter upon your ministry:

1. Don't be afraid. In spite of the physical prosperity of today the world is in the throes of fear. This is not only true of the frustration about world conditions; the church has caught the contagion. I bid you cast out all fears as you go forth as pastors of people needing a courage that will inspire faith in today and all the tomorrows, Have faith in the future, in yourselves, in your fellow men, and believe that as long as God reigns in his heaven all may be made well with the world tomorrow, no matter how dark are the clouds today. The truest courage displayed and the highest wisdom by any civic leader of our generation was by the late President Roosevelt in his first inaugural address. He was speaking to a generation in the grip of the worst depression in their history. They had seen their possessions shrink or be swept away—many had been evicted from their homes and millions of willing workers were walking the streets vainly seeking jobs. Dread of the tomorrows sat on every heart. The people were almost hopeless and many were hungry. They saw no rainbow piercing the clouds. The road ahead seemed blocked. Could there be a balm in Gilead? Out of the hopelessness of that never forgettable period came the clear calm voice of confidence that dissipated the gloom which was so thick you could cut it with a knife. That sentence was: "The only thing we have to fear is fear itself." That is our challenge in this day of drifting.

2. Don't be afraid to ring out clear and true for unpopular causes even if it cuts across the views or interests of some members of your church. Asked the road to political success by an ambitious young man, a wise statesman said: "Attach yourself to a righteous unpopular cause." The great preachers who have lived have never asked: "Is it popular?", but—"Is it right?"

3. Don't be afraid to tell your board of stewards and your congregation that you have come to call sinners to repentance, to comfort the bereaved, to give cheer to the poor, to minister to the sick, to touch the lives of those needing the help of the gospel and not to "serve tables."

Suggest the reintroduction of the Biblical division of duty in the church. Read to the congregation Act 6:1 to 6 where the disciples declared "it is not reason that we should leave the word of God and serve tables," so we "will give ourselves continually to prayer and to the ministry of the Word." The institutions of laymen to carry on all the work other than set forth in that scripture should be reinstated in all churches. Is it not true today that many of the laity have become A.W.O.L. in the call to full service, and sometimes preachers have assumed powers and duties that should devolve upon the pew? Not a few laymen—I among the rest—have thought of the church as a carryall with the preacher harnessed between the shafts, the good women pushing and shoving and the laymen lying inside on soft cushions, being transported to Zion with no effort on their part. As long as the preachers permit themselves to be so harnessed they need not complain of the load. They should, with all sweetness and light, call the laymen to relieve them of "serving table." By so doing the preacher will be doing a needed act. He will be keeping the laymen too busy serving the needs of the modern church in its multiplied activities to fall from grace. He will also increase democratization and lay responsibility in every congregation.

4. Don't be afraid of innovations or the use of modern agencies. The radio and the talking pictures are a part of life. They have come to stay. Do not condemn them. Convert them. Put them to spreading the gospel. Moving pictures depicting Bible scenes and missionary enterprises and Christian progress should be utilized in the churches and Sunday Schools.

5. Don't preach to empty pews. If the people do not come to the church, the church must go to the people. It must mix with men who sweat and hope and suffer, wherever they can be found. The command of the Master was not "Minister in a consecrated church." It was "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature"—This means to you to go to those who live on the other side of the tracks and carry the cheer of the gospel.

6 Don't fail to bring in your sermon a message that will compel the attention of your congregation. Dullness is the only unforgivable sin in the pulpit. I sometimes think that the lay official was right who, when asked what should be done if the congregation was indifferent, listless and sleepy during the sermon, said "Go into the pulpit and wake up the preacher." Unless the preacher can hold the attention of his hearers he needs to be aroused himself.

7. Don't be afraid of being called a sensationalist, revivalist or evangelist. The most sensational utterance of all history was "Ye must be born again." It was beyond the understanding of the Sanhedrin and of the lawyer who sought an interpretation from Jesus. There is danger that some preachers will be so afraid of being called exhorters or revivalists that they fail to arouse the interest or hold the attention of their congregation by declaring and stressing the plan of salvation laid down in the Bible. At the General Conference in Dallas a fellow delegate asked me for whom I planned to vote for the bishopric. I gave the name of a prominent evangelistic preacher. The delegate, who had questioned me, gave this advice: "Don't vote for him. He has no qualifications as an administrator—he is only an evangelist." I replied "Thank God for his evangelism. The church needs preachers who will call sinners to repentance— and bring comfort to those perplexed or in trouble more than it does administrators." The evangelist was elected and proved he possesses all the qualities needed in administration, —gifts inferior to those required in a winner of souls. That Bishop—like Bishop Peele—and other leaders has not forgotten that God expects to save the world by evangelical preaching that stirs the hearts of men and women.

8. Don't be afraid of appealing to the emotions. I have never known a man to be converted unless his heart was touched. If there is one pitfall today for young preachers more dangerous than any other it is to believe that the only way to reach the people is through logic and reason. No preacher can safely neglect appealing to the intellect. But we are told in the Scripture: "Out of the heart come the issue of life." If you can use only one barrel of the two barrelled gospel gun—logic and emotion—I beseech you as a minister of the gospel first to seek entrance into the hearts of the people. Men cannot be saved by logic though it should be employed to strengthen the impulses of the heart. The early Methodist preachers were not afraid of awakening the deepest wellsprings of human beings. The Scripture says: "With the heart man believeth unto righteousness." If I could give only one admonition to the young preacher it would be—Seek entrance into the affections of men and women and children and do not be afraid of calling the emotions into play. My good wife once said "I do not wish to hear a man preach who does not make me wish to cry, at least cry a little." She knew emotion was the mainspring that touched the whole being and led seasoned reason into saving faith.

If these don'ts from the pew by one who ventures to give counsel without feeling a sense of worthiness, I pray you will give them only the consideration they deserve. I am sure the Godly admonitions of Bishop Peele, based on his experience that has made him an elder brother to all in the ministry, will be a lamp to your feet, while what I have said in comparison will be only a flickering torch. But with a sense of responsibility I have spoken out of my heart what I trust has at least the merit of long consideration. It is given with sincerity and devotion to our church and with the earnest prayer that you may be guided and strengthened not by the word of men but by the spirit of the head of the church, who has called you to minister at its altars.

Memoirs

BENSON H. BLACK

By M. T. Plyler

Benson H. Black died November 23, 1946, in Durham, in his seventy-fourth year. He was born in Monroe, being a son of Dr. William S. Black and Kate Fleming Black, both well known in North Carolina Methodism. Dr. Black as pastor, presiding elder, and editor of the Raleigh Christian Advocate, and Mrs. Black as "Aunt Mary" to the Bright Jewels—the Children's Missionary Society of North Carolina Methodism—filled a large place in their day.

Dr. Black died as the presiding elder of the Warrenton District in 1897. The same year, Ben Black joined the North Carolina Conference so the membership of father and son covered ninety full years in the itinerancy.

In Raleigh schools, in Trinity College, from which he was graduated in 1895, in the Divinity School of Vanderbilt University, and in the Methodist itinerancy the Reverend Benson H. Black got his training for a Methodist minister. For forty-three years in seventeen charges this Methodist preacher and his noble wife did the exacting work assigned them in the various sections of the Conference. These are the charges served: Campbellton and Rose Chapel, Ocracoke, Mattamuskeet, Moyock, North and South Rocky Mount, Fremont Circuit, Conway Circuit, Oxford Circuit, Granville Circuit, Stantonsburg Circuit, Gates Circuit, Scotland Neck, Durham Circuit, Mount Tirzah Circuit, Garner Circuit, and South Rocky Mount Circuit, from which he retired in 1941.

These facts as to charges served do not begin to tell the story of the labors of this devoted servant of his Lord. They do indicate, however, how far and wide was the field in which this sower went forth to sow. In heat and cold, in sunshine and shadows this devoted Methodist preacher toiled on through the years. Some of these circuits were among the best, others were accounted hard and discouraging, but these did not cause him to falter and complain.

Brother Black's father and mother filled some of the best and highest positions in the South Carolina and the North Carolina Conferences, but the son, Benson H. Black, never was heard to complain when he was sent to hard and unpromising fields of labor. With fine fidelity and unwavering devotion he and his noble wife and fine boys lived up to the best traditions of the Methodist itinerancy.

Surviving are his wife, the former Miss Sarah Elizabeth Watson of Lakeland, Hyde County, N. C., and five sons: William W. of Winston-Salem, Harvey B. and James C. of Durham, Captain Benson H., Jr., of the Army Air Force, and George F. of Newport News.

Ben Black was a student at Trinity College in the days of President J. F. Crowell, and he imbibed the spirit of those days. His devotion to the college and the desire to turn boys that way remained with him through life. He was a member of the football squad and ever kept in touch with the athletic affairs. Later he and "Cap Card" became intimate friends and in the days of his retirement, "Cap" saw to it that "Ben" had tickets for the games in the stadium. He was a familiar figure on all these occasions, in which youth was assembled.

He did not chafe and fret when the years were closing down upon him.

After Brother Black's retirement in 1941, and the family moved to Durham, he found much happiness in his associations at Duke University and with the pastors of Durham, with whom he gathered in their meetings. He received from them every consideration and appreciation for his unfailing faith and devotion to every good cause.

At his death more than two hundred friends called at the home to pay their respects to the family.

The funeral services were held on November 25 at Bethany Church, conducted by the Reverend J. L. Hartz, pastor, and the Reverend H. C. Smith, district superintendent. The floral tributes were most beautiful, and the attendance of friends and citizens filled the house.

The interment was at Maplewood Cemetery, Durham, North Carolina.

WESLEY FRANK CRAVEN

By J. M. Ormond and R. E. Brown

Wesley Frank Craven, son of the late B. Y. and Keziah Mann Craven, was born in Randolph County, N. C., July 7, 1858, and died at his home, 2525 Chapel Hill Road, Durham, N. C., August 21, 1947.

After teaching school in Randolph County, Chatham County, and in Sanford, Brother Craven served as register of deeds in his native county. Such public work served as good background for him as he joined the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in 1893. He was ordained deacon in the church two years later and elder in 1897. For 40 years his service to God and to the Church was untiring and faithful, always steady, dependable, and enjoying a spark of humor. After retirement in 1933, he made his home in Durham.

During his period of active ministry he served these charges: Lillington, Sanford, Siler City, Roper, Conway, Rich Square, Spring Hope, Pittsboro, Fayetteville Circuit, Durham Circuit, Mount Olive, Bahama, and South Rocky Mount.

In 1891, Brother Craven married Miss Lelia Lee Jackson of Carthage, who died two years later. In 1904, he married Miss Elizabeth Turner of Granville County, who died in 1944.

Three children survive: Lee Jackson Craven of the North Carolina Employment Service of Raleigh; Wesley Frank Craven, Jr., Professor of History at New York University; and Miss Margaret Elizabeth Craven, medical technologist at Duke University Hospital. Also surviving are two brothers, C. H. and I. F. Craven of Ramseur; and one sister, Mrs. Ella Pope of Siler City; and three grandchildren, Mrs. A. C. Wullenwaber of Dunn, and Misses Nancy and Betty Craven of Leonia, N. J.; and one great-grandchild, Gaines Lee Wullenwaber.

Brother Craven wrote in a little notebook: "No thoughtful man can live in his own township or any small circle now. . . . As a church we have a fine system by which we can live for others at home and abroad. The church widens our wings."

Truly this statement represents his thought and way of life, ministering with never-failing understanding and helpfulness to the churches he served; and he will be long remembered, together with his good wife, for steadfast faith, sweetness of spirit, and genuine goodness, that makes us say, after reading in his little book written in trembling hand, "This mortal must put on immortality," he is with the Lord.

The heritage Brother Craven has left to his family, his close friends, and all those who came within the circle of his influence, is a treasure of immeasurable value. His profound faith in God and his successful translation of that faith into a life of gentleness, strength, purity, courage, and love are worthy of emulation by all who have known him. Through his life and service he has made a definite contribution to the Kingdom of God.

The funeral services were held at Duke Memorial Church, conducted by Dr. H. C. Smith, superintendent of the Durham district, assisted by Dr. H. E. Myers of Duke University, and interment was in Maplewood Cemetery.

O. I. HINSON

By H. C. Smith

The bare facts of a life can soon be told, but its influences for good or evil go on and on. The Reverend O. I. Hinson was born in Monroe, N. C., March 13, 1874, he passed away at his home in Durham, N. C., August 30, 1947. He received his education at Trinity College, now Duke University, and at Vanderbilt University. His wife, who died some years ago, was Miss Stella Pope Ford of Nashville, Tenn. Their daughter, Miss Ellie Ford Hinson, lives at the home in Durham and teaches in the city schools. Brother Hinson joined the Western North Carolina Conference November 15, 1906. He served churches in Shelby, Salisbury, Dallas, and Statesville in that Conference. Then for two years he taught in Missouri. In 1915, he transferred to the North Carolina Conference and was stationed at Branson Memorial Church in Durham. Other appointments in this Conference were: Calvary, Durham; Red Springs; Clayton; Siler City; Jonesboro; Warrenton; Enfield-Halifax; Webb Avenue; Bahama; Jenkins Memorial; and Southport. In November, 1946, he retired and came to Durham to live. He was not content to take a well deserved rest after he retired, but accepted the pastorate of Fountain Place in Burlington. He was starting off well in his work, the people were delighted with him and he with them, when his health gave way, and he had to give it up. It was a blow to him to be told by his doctor that he must give up. Even so, he did not complain but believed that all things work together for the good to them that love the Lord.

The above facts about Brother Hinson's life and work by no means tell the whole story. The best service a pastor renders cannot be put down in the record. There are services that cannot be expressed in sizes, numbers, and amounts. Healing broken hearts, giving comfort to the sorrowing, and light and help to those confused, cannot be reported in the blanks of a Conference Journal.

Referring to the church, St. Paul says, "As in one body we have many members, and all members have not the same office, so we, being many, are one body in Christ . . . Having gifts that differ according to the grace given unto us." That is a perfect description of the brotherhood of the Methodist ministry at its best. We have different talents and functions in the church, but are one body. Brother Hinson was a teacher, and a good preacher, but his outstanding ability was as a pastor. He was always welcome in the homes of his people, for they could feel that here is one who loves us. He knew how to rejoice with those who rejoice, and weep with those who weep. No man could be of more comfort to the sick and shut-ins than he.

As we think of his character, it is impossible to associate him with off-color stories, or with hurtful gossip. I have never heard him speaking evil of a fellow minister, and when he addressed you as "brother" you felt that he meant just that. In his last days he told us again and again how he loved the people that he had served. Calvary Church and the pastor were especially attentive to him those last weeks, and tears would come into his eyes as he expressed his love for them.

His funeral was conducted from Calvary Church August 31, 1947, by the pastor, the Reverend L. M. Hall, assisted by Bishop Peele and H. C. Smith. There is only one place a man like Brother Hinson could be, at Home with his Lord.

MILTON FRANKLIN HODGES

By C. P. Morris

The Reverend Milton Franklin Hodges, son of Martin Franklin Hodges and Rebecca Jane (Parham) Hodges, was born in Robeson County October 8, 1879. He died July 23, 1947, at Mercy Hospital, Charlotte, after suffering for four months with a serious heart condition and other complications, which followed a severe case of influenza.

Milton Hodges received his education at Campbell College and Louisville Seminary at Louisville, Ky. He joined the North Carolina Conference in 1915. His first appointment was Columbia charge in the Elizabeth City district. In succession, he served the following charges: Kenansville, Wesley Memorial in Wilmington, Ahoskie, Aulander, Person St.-Calvary in Fayetteville, Garland, Milton, Spring Hope, Caledonia, and West End. After 27 years of faithful service, he retired from the active ministry in 1943 because of ill health.

In 1904 he was married to Miss Hattie Hodges of Scotland County, who was ever a faithful companion and an effective helper throughout his ministry. To them was born one daughter, Josephine, now Mrs. E. L. Wallace of Troy, N. C. In addition to his wife and daughter, he is survived by one granddaughter, Martha Frances Wallace.

Brother Hodges was a good pastor and greatly loved by his people. He never saw a stranger and had a good word for everyone. As a preacher he was perhaps at his best when in a revival, and his brethren sought his services often for revival meetings. He was bold to declare the whole counsel of God without compromise and without favor, and he was instrumental in leading many to Christ.

He was always interested in improving the physical property of the churches he served. He remodeled parsonages and churches and built up the work wherever he went. He always went to Conference with everything paid in full, and he never moved from a charge leaving a debt unpaid.

Brother Hodges was active even in retirement. He was always ready to fill an appointment, conduct a revival meeting, or supply for a fellow minister, even those of other denominations. He performed these services gladly until his fatal illness.

Funeral services were conducted from the First Methodist Church of Laurinburg by the pastor, Rev. R. F. Munns, assisted by Rev. W. L. Clegg, his district superintendent; Rev. C. P. Morris; Rev. E. G. Cowan; and Dr. J. B. Turner, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Laurinburg. Masonic Lodge No. 305 had charge of the rites at the grave. Interment was in Hillside Cemetery in Laurinburg.

"Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord." St. Matthew 25:21.

"I cannot say, and I will not say
 That he is dead! He is just away!
 With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand,
 He has wandered into an unknown land.
 And left us dreaming how very fair
 It must be, since he lingers there.
 And you—O you, who the wildest yearn
 For the old-time step and the glad return—
 Think of him faring on, as dear
 In the love of There as the love of Here;
 Mild and gentle as he was brave—
 When the sweetest love of his life he gave
 To simple things:—where the violets grew
 Pure as the eyes they were likened to,
 The touches of his hands have strayed
 As reverently as his lips have prayed.
 Think of him still as the same, I say;
 He is not dead—he is just away!

JACOB HOLT McCracken

By M. T. Plyler

Jacob Holt McCracken was born July 15, 1863. He was a son of John and Angeline Holt McCracken of Orange County, N. C.. His mother was from Alamance County. Brother McCracken's grandfather was a Quaker. He was converted under a brush arbor at twelve years of age and at fifteen he felt called to preach but he told no one but his mother, since he held to the conviction that a call to preach is a call to get ready to preach.

As a youth, he worked with his father in a wheelwright shop making wagons and buggies. He also joined with an older brother in working tobacco patches. Then he turned his money over to his father to keep until he was able to go to school.

Young McCracken attended Cedar Grove Academy, and New Garden School, now Guilford College, in preparation for Trinity College. After leaving college, he was elected principal of Caldwell Institute, Orange County, in 1891, where he engaged in educational work for six years—from August 1891 to May 1897.

The next year, young McCracken married Miss Lula Woods of Orange County, July 28, 1892. To them were born four children: Thomas W. McCracken, Henderson, N. C.; Emeline McCracken (died 1905); Dr. Jacob Holt McCracken, Jr., San Pedro, Calif.; and Miss Sarah McCracken, Durham. There are four grandchildren. There are one sister, Miss Annie McCracken, and three brothers, Dr. Jim T. McCracken and George T. McCracken of Durham, and Dr. F. Webb McCracken of Sanford.

In 1897, the Reverend J. H. McCracken joined the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in which he served as an active minister thirty-eight years, and as a retired minister eleven years; but these were not idle years. His appointments were as follows: 1897-1901, Durham Circuit; 1901-1904, Yanceyville Circuit; 1904-1908, West Durham; 1908-1912, Beaufort; 1912-1916, Central Church, Raleigh; 1916-1920, Fifth Avenue, Wilmington; 1920-1923, First Church, Washington; 1923-1926, Troy; 1926-1928, Calvary Church, Durham; 1928-1931, Washington District Superintendent; 1931-1932, New Bern District Superintendent; 1932-1935, Elizabeth City District Superintendent.

Brother McCracken did not deal in theories or rely on uncertainties. He was sure of his conversion and just as certain of his call to the ministry. He put it thus:

"There are five outstanding events in my life: First, when I was converted at the age of 12 years, and it was the most real thing of all my experience.

"Second, when I was called to preach three years later. My call to preach was certain as my my conversion. I tried teaching as a profession. My call to preach became even more definite.

"Third, when I was married to Miss Lula Anne Woods of Orange County on July 28, 1892. All the years she has been a real helpmeet to me in all my crosses. My marriage was the most fortunate and joyous event which happened to me in the whole of my life. For what can be more glorious than to be united in one's walk through life with a companion incapable of an ignoble thought! She had the proper conception of a woman's power. She knew the strength of companionship and understanding, which is the basis of marriage. She understands that woman's real power is always behind the scenes, in all walks of life, especially as a preacher's wife.

"Fourth, when I joined the North Carolina Conference on December 7, 1897. If I know myself, I consecrated my whole life and all I had to God's work in the ministry. I always kept before me a lost world and a Living Savior, who saves to the uttermost. I have had the great joy throughout my ministry of seeing thousands converted.

"Fifth, when I retired on November 25, 1935, after serving 30 years as a pastor and 8 years as Presiding Elder, making a total of 38 years of happy service in the Church of my Lord. If I had my life to live over again, I would join the N. C. Conference and serve my blessed Lord and my day and Church.

"Since I retired I have been called by my brethren to preach for them and conduct meetings and dedicate churches. I have assisted in many burials of some of the best friends of my life. The great passion of my whole ministry has been, for lost souls."

This may be termed the confession of faith of our dear brother.

WALTER PATTEN

By J. G. Phillips

The name of Walter Patten will not be forgotten so long as anyone remembers the story of the growing opportunities of Christian youth in North Carolina. From November 1913, when he became pastor at our University Church in Chapel Hill, until his sudden and untimely death in the president's home at Louisburg College, he performed a service to college and university youth such as few men have the privilege to equal. Between funds raised to build the great church at Chapel Hill, and money secured to cancel the debt at Louisburg College, he saw nearly half a million dollars turned toward the spiritual, mental and physical enrichment of North Carolina young people. The material value represented cannot compare with the value of outstanding Christian careers which have been shaped to a considerable degree by the influence of this university pastor and college president.

From the quiet old cemetery in Chapel Hill, where the Patten burial plot may be found, you can look up and see the gleam of a magnificent church spire, a monument to a man's faith such as one seldom beholds. This church is the colonial expression of the architect who planned the Harkness Quadrangle at Yale. Standing now, in the midst of thousands of young veterans of the second world war, it makes plain to all that wisdom was combined with vision in the planning and building. Walter Patten will always be a part of the Chapel Hill tradition for thousands of former students, and scores of faculty members, along with many of the great and good men of the State who frequent that village.

At Louisburg College, Dr. Patten's part was to take the responsibility of the president's office at a time when the life of the institution was still in a critical state. No one dared guess whether the debt could ever be lifted, and the college set free. When death suddenly released him from his responsibilities at the college, the institution was living in a kind of freedom, with a degree of strength in resources, and with a breadth of opportunity such as it had never known before in all its long history.

Many will think of Dr. Patten whenever they see the red brick walk lined with mimosas and lilies. Another reminder will be the evidences of his great effort to meet the needs of returning veterans, who, like two of his own sons, came back to take up life anew. Not only the young folk who attended Louisburg College during his years as president, but every Christian youth who finds opportunity there during all the years to come will be indebted to the man who undertook a second "impossible" job, and succeeded! A person might wish that one of the oak trees on the campus could be named the "Patten Oak" because of the kinship in toughness of fiber and strength of purpose.

September 15, 1880 - March 8, 1947. They were the days of his years. The days of his boyhood were spent in the home of his parents, Wellington and Ellen Frances Hancock Patten, in his native town of Bridgeville, Del. His college days were spent at Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn. He was a member of the Wesleyan University chapter of Alpha Delta Phi. His alma mater conferred upon him the degree of Bachelor of Arts in 1907, and the degree of Doctor of Divinity in 1928. His Master of Arts degree was earned later in the graduate school of the University of North Carolina.

After graduation from Wesleyan University, Walter Patten followed his father to North Carolina to assist him in the successful establishment of a new business venture. This was with the understanding that he would return home soon to enter the Methodist ministry. He did return to New England in 1908, to be married. The bride was Sarah K. Cady, and the wedding was on October 20, in her home town of Providence, R. I.

When the time came to begin a career of preaching the gospel of Christ Jesus, circumstances directed toward a parsonage in the North Carolina Conference. At the Conference of 1909, Walter Patten was appointed to Oriental. In 1913, he became pastor at Chapel Hill. In 1917, he began his work at Greenville, where he received a citation from the American Red Cross for public service during the war-time influenza epidemic, and helped to establish the Pitt County Hospital. In 1921, he began a second pastorate of six years in Chapel Hill, and it was during this time that the University Church was built. In 1927, he began four years work as Presiding Elder at New Bern. There followed two pastorates, Hay Street, Fayetteville, and Trinity, Wilmington. Dr. Patten served as secretary of the North Carolina Conference Board of Missions from 1921 to 1927. From 1931 to 1939, he was president of this Board, and from 1939 until his death, he served as vice-president.

Louisburg College called for his services in 1937, and he became public relations secretary. In 1939, he was installed as president of Louisburg College. On March 8 of his eighth year as president, he went in the afternoon to Raleigh to take part in the ceremony of bestowing a posthumous award for heroism upon an alumnus of Louisburg College, one who was killed on Iwo Jima. He offered the closing prayer in words long to be remembered by the parents of the slain soldier and by the other persons present. Soon after arriving home in Louisburg, Dr. Patten became ill, and it was soon apparent that he was the victim of a severe heart attack. Within a very few minutes the days of his years in this world were ended, and he had left for us a heritage of noble accomplishment in the Kingdom.

Remaining to carry the splendid Christian traditions of the home are his wife, Mrs. Sarah Cady Patten; three sons, Paul R. Patten of Mt. Olive, Lawrence Patten of San Antonio, Texas, and the Reverend Brooks Patten of Stedman; and two daughters, Mrs. William C. Scott of Bristol, Tenn., and Mrs. J. Kempton Jones of St. Albans, N. Y.

Funeral services were conducted in the Louisburg Methodist Church by the pastor, the Reverend J. Marvin Culbreth, and the president of the college trustees, the Reverend W. A. Cade. The chosen cemetery was at Chapel Hill, and the procession moved to that place after a brief service among many old friends in the Chapel Hill Methodist Church. This service was conducted by the pastor, the Reverend Henry Ruark, assisted by J. M. Culbreth and J. G. Phillips.

In this service Dr. Patten's own favorite poem for use at funeral services was read from his own former pulpit. From these lines he seemed to say that we need not seek fellowship with him beside a low, green mound, but that we should be reminded of him by the friendly look from the eyes of little children, by the swaying boughs of bud-thrilled trees, by the strength in the upward tread of everlasting hills, by the flaming radiance of the sunrise, and by the peace in the tender rose and gold of the after-sunset. And so it was with him, at sunset came peace and rest.

GEORGE LEE REYNOLDS

By Wilson O. Weldon

The Reverend George Lee Reynolds was born December 25, 1873, in Montgomery County, North Carolina, the son of W. I. and Susan Moore Reynolds.

This man of God served as a Methodist minister for forty-five years. He joined the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church in 1901 when the Conference met in Henderson. He retired at the 1946 session of the North Carolina Conference when it met likewise in Henderson. Among his charges were the following: La Grange, Guilford, Mocksville, Thomasville Circuit, Pleasant Grove, English Street (High Point), Danville (Virginia), Why Not Circuit, Alamance, and the West End Charge.

Brother Reynolds was principal of the school in Denton, North Carolina, when the Children's Home of the Methodist Protestant Church was established. He advised with the women who were instrumental in setting up the Children's Home and gave to all the orphans free tuition in the school and also ministered to their spiritual needs. He was educated at Oak Ridge Military Institute, Yadkin College, and the University of North Carolina. He also served on the faculty of the Methodist Protestant Conference for more than twenty years.

On September 9, 1900, he was married to Lela Victoria Peeler, who died on January 13, 1937. Born to this union were three daughters, all of whom survive: Mrs. L. F. Honeycutt and Mrs. Ralph H.

Vance of High Point, and Mrs. James M. Parsons, Jr., of Washington, D. C. Also, two sisters survive: Miss Margaret Reynolds and Miss Ada Reynolds, both of Montgomery County.

He died on December 4, 1946, in the High Point Memorial Hospital, High Point, N. C. Funeral services were conducted on Friday, December 6, at the First Methodist Church in High Point by the minister, the Reverend Wilson O. Weldon, assisted by the Reverend Talmadge Lancaster, student in High Point College, who had been associated with Mr. Reynolds on his last charge. Interment was in Oakwood Memorial Cemetery of High Point.

This noble soldier of the Cross gave his life in the service of his Church. He was humble, patient, and completely devoted to the ministry. God has called home for rest one of his most faithful servants, who for more than forty-five years was a faithful "herald of God." His eager quest for truth, his patient and constructive labors in all of the churches he served, and his loving influence for goodness and righteousness will live forever in the hearts of his comrades and in the treasury of our Heavenly Father!

JOHN FRAZIER STARNES

By H. C. Smith

Dr. E. B. Chappell, who was for many years editor of our Sunday school literature, made it a habit to ask successful men and women in all walks of life to what they attributed their success. Such a large per cent said they attributed it to the influences of the home that he wondered if anything else mattered. John F. Starnes was an example of that. He was the product of a Christian home. His father before him was a minister, and his mother a truly Christian woman. The family lived in Starnes Cove, just west of Asheville, where John F. was born January 12, 1877. With such a father and mother, and in the atmosphere of such a home, it is no wonder that he, with two of his brothers, heard and heeded the call of God to preach. He began his work as a preacher early, preaching his first sermon in the old home church when he was only sixteen years of age. His education began in the public schools near by. He later attended Trinity College, now Duke University. His first work after leaving college was teaching in Maryville Presbyterian College, Maryville, Tenn. It was there that he met Miss Verna Gillespie who on October 17, 1906, became his wife. She was a woman of outstanding character, which is manifested in her children. This union was blessed with seven children, four girls and three boys: Mrs. Percy S. Pullman, Wayne G., and Lamar, of Durham; Mrs. D. M. Ray, of Chapel Hill; R. Glenn Starnes, of Burlington; Mrs. Frank H. Evans, of Statesville; and Mrs. Thad V. Wilkerson, of Roxboro.

Brother Starnes was thirty years old when he joined the Western North Carolina Conference in 1907. He served that Conference most acceptably for twelve years. In 1919 he transferred to the North Carolina Conference, where he served until he retired in 1942. He was pastor at Webb Avenue (Burlington), Bynum, Stem, Bahama, Carrboro, Newton Grove, and Council. He was very successful in organizing churches where there were none, and in inspiring his people to build new churches where they were needed. It can truly be said of him that he was a good minister of Jesus Christ. He loved his people and gave himself in devoted service to them wherever he was sent. He visited his members and was always welcome in their homes, for they knew that in him they had a friend and true shepherd. His life in the communities where he lived was always an example for both young and old. In their children they have a living monument, for they, too, can say, "All we are we owe to our home training."

December 17, 1946, Brother Starnes suddenly passed away. On that date the preachers of the Durham district had dinner together. After that hour of fellowship, which he greatly enjoyed, he went home and in a few hours was gone. Someone has said that no one is lost if he knows where he belongs. He knew that and was sure that the Lord was able to keep that which he had entrusted to Him. His friends knew where he belonged and where they shall find him. His memory will linger with his loved ones and with us all as a benediction.

Surrounded by friends and lovely flowers, his funeral was conducted by the Reverend R. E. Brown and Dr. H. C. Smith in Duke Memorial Church.

"Servant of God, well done,
The glorious warfare is past,
The battle is fought, the race is won,
Thou art crowned at last."

JOHN CEPHAS WILLIAMS

By S. J. Starnes

The subject of the last sermon preached by the Reverend John Cephas Williams as pastor of the Fremont Methodist Church was "The Place of the Church and Religion in the Life of Man." Among other things, he said, there are three things a Methodist preacher must always be ready to do: first, to preach; second, to move; and third, to die. He delivered what members of his congregation said was one of the best sermons they ever heard him preach, went immediately across the street to his parsonage home, lay down on the bed and died. Thus ended the ministry of one of the North Carolina Conference's most faithful and useful members.

Brother Williams was born in Rockingham County August 20, 1882, the son of A. G. and Isabelle Walker Williams. Early in life he gave his heart to God and joined the Methodist Church. In 1907 he was happily married to Miss Maggie Lee Dixon of Rockingham County, who has proven a most sympathetic and helpful companion in their 40 years of married life. He is survived by his wife, and three children, Mrs. Estelle Caudill of Elkin, Mrs. Jamima Barefoot of Wilson, and John Cephas Williams, Jr., a student at Brevard College, who has expressed his intention of entering the ministry and carrying on the work of his father. Also surviving is one brother, the Reverend T. G. Williams, pastor of the Methodist church at Stokesdale; three sisters, Mrs. C. T. Harris, Mrs. T. D. Clayton, and Mrs. Treva Haynes, all of Rockingham County; and five grandsons.

About 33 years ago, Brother Williams felt the call to the ministry. He later attended Guilford College, and joined the North Carolina Conference at Greenville in 1917. For 30 years he served the following appointments: Millbrook, 1917-1921; Mt. Tirzah, 1921-1923; Tar River, 1923-1927; Bailey, 1927-1932; Fuquay Springs, 1932-1936; Fayetteville Circuit, 1936-1940; Cedar Grove, 1940-1944; Fremont, 1944-1947. Brother Williams served effectively every charge to which he was sent, and his monumental work as a Christian minister in building churches and preaching the gospel will live on to bless mankind. He was active till the end, having died at Fremont, Sunday, October 26, 1947, at 1:30 p.m., after preaching to an appreciative congregation at the 11 o'clock service.

Funeral services were conducted in the Fremont Methodist Church Tuesday morning, October 28, 1947, by the Reverend S. J. Starnes, the Reverend J. A. Russell, and the Reverend B. B. Slaughter, his district superintendent. The body was laid to rest in the Glenco cemetery in Rockingham County after a brief service in the Glenco church, conducted by the writer, assisted by the Reverend Mr. Cook, pastor of Cedar Grove Presbyterian Church, the Reverend T. V. Crouse, of the Haw River Methodist charge, the Reverend A. D. Shelton of Stokesdale, and Dr. W. A. Lambeth of Greensboro. The large number of ministers present at both services, together with the large attendance of friends from charges formerly served by the deceased, and the array of beautiful floral designs sent by former parishioners were a beautiful and impressive expression of the high esteem in which he was held. The board of stewards of the Fremont church drove in a body the 150 miles to the graveside to attend the last rites for their beloved pastor.

In the passing of this faithful servant of God the North Carolina Conference has lost one of its most useful members, the family has lost a noble husband and father, and this writer has lost one of the dearest and best friends he ever had on earth. However, Brother Williams had anticipated the experience of death and had made ample preparation for it. When the summons came it found him ready.

It is not death to die,
To leave this weary road
And 'midst the brotherhood on high
To be at home with God.

We shall await the resurrection morning and the glad day of reunion.

MRS. C. P. JEROME

By A. J. Hobbs

Kate Drew was born in Southport, N. C., July 7, 1874, the daughter of James and Pauline Drew. As the years passed she grew in wisdom, in stature, and in favor with God and man, developing into a woman of high ideals and charming personality. After completing her work in the schools of her home community, she continued to live a noble life among her friends and acquaintances. On June 28, 1900, Miss Drew was married to J. Bailey Robeson. For several years they lived in Wilmington, Mooresville, and Sanford, before moving to Raleigh in 1918. In the Capital City, Mr. and Mrs. Robeson made Edenton Street their church home. She was an active member, taking her place in the Woman's Missionary Society and other church activities. She was fortunate in having an ideal husband whose service to the church included a period as superintendent of the Sunday school and as chairman of the board of stewards. Mr. Robeson passed away June 10, 1927. In October 1934, Mrs. Robeson was married to the Reverend C. P. Jerome. For ten years this couple lived happily together in Mrs. Jerome's home in Raleigh. Then, in 1944, declining health made it necessary for her to enter a rest home in Winston-Salem, where she remained until her death on February 14, 1947. Her funeral was conducted from Edenton Street Church by her minister, the Reverend A. J. Hobbs. Surviving are her husband, Rev. C. P. Jerome; and two sons by her first husband, Palmer and Stuart Robeson.

Of her life we can say in the Master's own words, "She was among us as one who served," . . . "She hath done what she could."

"Through the deep silence of the moonless dark,
Leaving no footprint of the path she trod,
Straight as an arrow cleaving to its mark,
Her soul went home to God.

"Alas, we cry, she never saw the morn,
But fell asleep outwearied by the strife,
Nay, rather she arose and met the Dawn
Of Everlasting Life."

MRS. MARY J. McFARLAND

By T. B. Hough

Seventy-nine years ago, as a tiny flower begins to unfurl its petals under the rays of a friendly sun, the life of this good woman began under the happy influence of a Christian home. Having been endued with the power to live creatively, she began to mold life, character and personality while at a tender age. At seventeen she was principal of a public school, and throughout her long and fruitful life she never ceased instructing by precept and example. Her dynamic personality and sympathetic patience enabled her to win those with whom she worked to her ideals of life. Whether in the public school, in the church school, or in the homes of the parish, all roads lead to service, and this great, good woman traveled all of them.

Men and women rise from seats of honor and influence and call her blessed. The impress of her personality is indelibly upon theirs, and the inspiration of her life motivated them to new heights of achievement. The caress of a tender hand, a word spoken in love, approval read in a friendly smile were the instruments she used in molding character and personality.

Her husband was an honored member of this Conference, and by his side she held up the torch of truth that its light might flood the lives of weary men, women and children. No comfort of home could restrain her in her benevolent ministry to all people in need. Her health and strength were taxed again and again as she spent her energies gleaning in the harvest fields about her. A parsonage queen has folded her hands in a well earned rest, and multitudes of friends lift their hearts to a loving Father and thank Him for the manifestation of His love in the life of this radiant, creative co-laborer with Christ.

She leaves a distinguished son, an honored member of the Western North Carolina Conference, who will continue to hold high the standards that she held high. The radiance of her life will add luster to his days, and her faith in Christ will strengthen his anchorage. To share the coveted heritage with him are four grandsons who have discovered the atmosphere of heaven in her earnest devotions. As they study her footprints upon the pilgrimage of life, they will discover that they lead to the home of an everlasting Father.

We shall miss her everywhere. She was loyal to every good cause, and was dependable in every worthy need. Her presence and courage have been both inspiring and challenging to us. Today, our hearts are heavy over her going, and yet, we rejoice over God's plan of promotion by which He is able to bring the redeemed of earth together, completing His glorious family, in His heavenly kingdom. When morning came here she went out to meet the dawn of an eternal day.

Sessions of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church

The North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church was composed of the North Carolina Conference of the former M. E. Church, South, and parts of the North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Protestant Church and the Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church. The former Methodist Episcopal Church gave to the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church 9 preachers, 11 charges and 1,837 members; the former Methodist Protestant Church 23 preachers, 20 charges and 9,152 members; the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South, 273 preachers, 226 charges and 132,735 members.

NOTE: The Distributing Committee at the 1940 session of the Western North Carolina Conference added three retired ministers of the former Methodist Protestant Church to the roll of the North Carolina Conference. The names of these preachers should have been included in 1939 in the list of preachers coming into the North Carolina Conference from the former Methodist Protestant Church.
